5 Go, and shewe my people their sinnes, & their children their wickednes, which they haue committed against me, that they may tel their childrens children.

6 For the sinnes of their fathers are increased in them, because they haue forgotten me, and haue offred vnto strange gods.

7 Haue not I brought them out of the land of Egypt from the house of bondage? but they haue prouoked me vnto wrath, and despised my counsels.

8 Pull thou of then the heere of thine head, and cast all euil vpon them: for they haue not bene obedient vnto my Law, but they are a rebellious people.

9 How long shal I forbear the, vnto whom I haue done somuche good?

10 * Many Kings haue I destroyed for their sakes: Pharao with his seruants and all his armie haue I smitten downe. Exod. 14. 28.

11 All the nacions haue I destroyed before them: * I haue destroyed the East, the people of the two countreis Tyrus and Sidō, and haue slaine all their enemies. Nomb 21. 24. Iosua 3. 12.

12 Speake thou therefore vnto the, saying, Thus saith the Lord,

13 * I haue led you thorow the Sea, and haue giuen you a sure way, since the beginning: * I gaue you Moyles for a guide, and Aaron for a Priest. Exod 14. 29. Exod 3. 10. & 4. 14.

14 * I gaue you light in a pillar of fyre, and great wonders haue I done among you: yet haue ye forgotten me, saith the Lord. Exod 13. 21.

15 Thus saith y^e Almightye Lord, The quai-

16 And ye triumphed not in my Name for the destruction of your enemies, but ye yet murmure stil.

17 Where are the benefites, that I haue done for you? when ye were hungrie in the wildernes, * did ye not crye vnto me? Nomb. 14. 30.

- Wis 16, 20.* 19 I had pittie vpon your moutnings, and gaue you Manna to eat: so ye did eat Angels fode.
- Nom 20, 11. Wis 11, 4.* 20 *When ye were thirstie, did not I cleaue the stone, & waters did flowe out to satisfie you: from the heat I couered you with the leaues of the trees,
- Isa. 5, 4.* 21 And I gaue you fat countreis: I cast out the Cananites, & Pherefites, & Philistims before you: *what shal I do more for you, saith the Lord?
- Exod 17, 25.* 22 Thus saith the almightie Lord, *When ye were in the wildernes at the bitter waters, being a thirst, and blaspheming my Name,
- 23 I gaue you not fyre for the blasphemies, but cast a tre into the water, and made the riuer swete.
- Exod 32, 8.* 24 What shal I do vnto thee, o Iacob? thou *Iuda woldest not obey: I wil turne me to other nations, and vnto those wil I giue my Name, that they may kepe my lawes.
- 25 Seing ye haue forsaken me, I wil also forsake you: when ye aske mercie of me, I wil not haue pittie vpon you.
- Isa. 1, 15.* 26 *When ye call vpon me, I wil not heare you: for ye haue defiled your hands with blood, and your fete are swift to commit murther,
- 27 Although ye haue not forsaken me, but your owne selues, saith the Lord.
- 28 Thus saith the almightie Lord, Haue I not prayed you, as a father his sonnes, and as a mother her daughters, and as a nurse her yong babes,
- 29 That ye wolde be my people, as I am your God, and that ye wolde be my children, as I am your father?
- Mat 23, 37.* 30 *I gathered you together as an henne gathereth her chickens vnder her wings: but now what shal I do vnto you? I wil cast you out from my sight.
- Isa 1, 13.* 31 *When ye bring gifts vnto me, I wil turne my face from you for your solemne feaste dayes: your new moones, & your circumcisions haue I forsaken.

- 34 Your children shal not haue generacions: for they haue despised my commandment, & done the thing that I hate before me.
- 35 Your houses wil I giue vnto a people to come, who shal beleue me thogh they heare me not, and they, vnto whome I neuer shewed miracle, shal do the things that I command them.

- 37 ¶ I wil declare the grace that I wil do for the people to come, whose children reioyce in gladnes, and thogh they haue not seene me with bodelie eyes, yet in heart they beleue the things that I say.
- 38 Now therefore brother, beholde what great glorie, and se the people that come from the East.
- 39 Vnto whome I wil giue for leaders Abraham, Isahac, Iacob, Oseas, Amos, Micheas, Ioel, Abdias, Ionas,
- 40 Naum, Habacuc, Sophonias, Aggeus, Zacharias, and Malachias (which is called also the *messenger of the Lord) Malach 1, 1.

CHAP. II.

The Synagogue findeth faulte with her owne children, & the Gentiles are called.

- 1 Thus saith the Lord, I broght this people out of bondage: I gaue them also my commandments by my seruants the Prophetes, whome they wolde not heare, but despised my counsels.
- 2 The mother that bare them, saith vnto them, Go you away, o children: for I am a widdowe and forsaken.
- 3 I broght you vp with gladnes, but with sorowe and heaumes haue I lost you: for ye haue sinned against the Lord your God, and done the thing that displeaseth him.
- 4 But what shal I now do vnto you? I am a widdowe and forsaken: go ye, o my children, and aske mercie of the Lord.
- 5 And thee, o father, I call for a witnes for the mother of these children, which wolde not kepe my couenant,
- 6 That thou bring them to confusion, and their mother to a spoile, that their kiarred be not continued.
- 7 Let their names be scatred among the heathen: let them be put out of the earth, for they haue despised my couenant.
- 8 Wo vnto thee, Aflur: for thou hast the vnrighteous in thee: o wicked people, remember * what I did vnto Sodom and Gomorrha, Gen 19, 24.
- 9 Whose lād is mixt with cloudes of pitch and heapes of ashes: so wil I do vnto the, that heare me not, saith the almightie Lord.
- 10 ¶ Thus saith the Lord vnto Esdras, Tel my people, that I wil giue them the kingdom of Ierusalem, which I wolde haue giuen vnto Israel.
- 11 And I wil get me glorie by them, and giue the the cuerlasting tabernacles, which I had prepared for those.
- 12 They shal haue at wil the tre of life, smelling of ointement: they shal neither labour nor be weary.
- 13 Go ye, & ye shal rectaue it: pray that the time, time, which is long, may be shortened: the kingdome is already prepared for you: watche.

24 Take heauen and earth to witnes: for I haue abolished the euil, and created the good: for I liue, saith the Lord.

25 Mother, embrace thy children, and bring them vp with gladnes: make their fete as fait as a pillar: for I haue chosen thee, saith the Lord.

26 And those that be dead, wil I raise vp from their places, and bring them out of the graues: for I haue knowen my Name in Israel.

27 Feare not, thou mother of the children: for I haue chosen thee, saith the Lord.

28 I wil send thee my seruants Esau and Iremie to helpe thee, by whose counsel I haue sanctified & prepared for thee twelue trees laden with diuers frutes, 29 And as many fountaines, flowing with milke and hony, and teuen mightie mountaines, whereupon there growe roses and lilies, whereby I wil fil thy children with ioye.

30 Execute iustice for the widdowe: iudge the cause of the fatherles: giue to the poore: defende the fatherles: clothe the naked.

31 Heale the wounded, and sicke: laugh not a lame man to scorne: defend the crepel, and let the blinde come into the light of my clerenes.

32 Kepe the olde & the yong that are within thy walles.

Zob. 1. 20.

33 *Wherefoeuer thou findest the dead, take them and burye them, and I wil giue thee the first place in my resurrection.

34 Abide still, o my people, and rest: for thy quietnes shal come.

35 Nourish thy childre, o thou good nurse: stablish their fete.

36 None of the seruants that I haue giuen thee, shal perish: for I wil seke them from among thy nomber.

37 Be not weary: for when the day of trouble and heauines commeth, other shal wepe and be sorowefull, but thou shalt be merry and haue abundance.

38 The heathen shal enuie thee, and shal do nothing against thee, saith the Lord.

39 Mine hands shal couer thee, so that thy children shal not se hell.

40 Be ioyfull, o thou mother, with thy children: for I wil deliuer thee, saith the Lord.

41 Remember thy children that slepe: for I wil bring the out of the sides of the earth, and wil shewe mercie vnto them: for I am mercifull, saith the Lord almightie.

42 Embrace thy children, vntil I come and shewe mercie vnto the: for my fountaines runne ouer, and my grace shal not faile.

43 I Esdras receiued a charge of the Lord

vpou the mount Horeb, that I shulde go vnto them of Israel, but when I came to them, they cast me of, and despised the commandment of the Lord.

44 And therefore I say vnto you, o ye heathen, that heare and vnderstand, Wait for your shepherd, who shal giue you euerlasting rest: for he is nere at hand, that shal come in the end of the worlde.

45 Be ready to the rewarde of the kingdome: for the euerlasting light shal shine vpo you for euermore.

46 Fie the shadowe of this worlde: receiue y ioye of your glorie: I testifie my Sauiour openly.

47 Receiue the gift that is giuen you, and be glad, giuing thanks vnto him, that hath called you to the heauenlie kingdome.

48 Arise, and stand vp, and beholde the number of those that are sealed for the feast of the Lord, 49 Which are departed from the shadowe of the worlde, and haue receiued glorious garments of the Lord.

50 Take thy nomber, o Zion, and shut vp them that are clothed in white, which haue fulfilled the Law of the Lord.

51 The number of thy children whome thou longest for, is fulfilled: beseeche y power of the Lord, that thy people which haue bene called fi o the beginning, may be sanctified.

52 *I Esdras sawe vpo mount Zion a great people whome I colde not nombre, and they all praised the Lord with songs. Reuel. 7. 9.

53 And in the middes of them there was a yong man here in stature then them all, & vpo euerie one of their heads he set crownes, and was hier then the others, which I muche maruelled at.

54 So I asked the Angel, and said, Who are these, my lord?

55 Who answered, and said vnto me, These be they, that haue put of the mortal clothing, and haue put on the immortal, and haue confessed the Name of God: now are they crowned, and receiue the palmes.

56 Then said I vnto y Angel, What yong man is it, that setteth crownes on them, & giueth them the palmes in their hands.

57 And he answered, & said vnto me, It is the sonne of God, whome they haue confessed in the worlde. Then began I greatly to commend them, that had stand so strongly for the Name of the Lord.

58 Then the Angel said vnto me, Go thy way, and tel my people, what, and how great wonders of the Lord God thou hast sent.

Ecce. iii.

I I. Esdras.

- IN the thirtieth yere after the fall of the citie, as I was at Babylon, I lay troubled vpon my bed, and my thoughts came vp to mine heart,
 Because I sawe the desolacion of Sion, & the wealth of them that dwelt at Babylon.
 So my spirit was sore moued, so that I beganne to speake feaful wordes to the most High, and said,
 O Lord, Lord, thou spakest at the beginning when thou alone plantedst the earth, and gauest comādemēt vnto the people,
 *And a bodie vnto Adam, without soule, who was also the workemanship of thine hands, and hast breathed in him the breth of life, so that he liued before thee,
 And leddest him into Paradise, which thy right hand had planted, or euer the earth brought forth.
 Euen then thou gauest him commandement to loue thy way but he transgressed it, and immediatly thou appointedst death to him and his generacion, of whome came nacions, tribes, people and kinreds out of number.
 *And euerie people walked after their owne wil, and did wonderful things before thee, and despised thy commandements.
 *But at thy time appointed thou broughtest the flood vpon those that dwelt in the worlde and destroiedst them,
 So that by the flood, that came to euerie one of them, which came by death vnto Adam,
 Yet thou lesteft one, euen *Noe, with his housholde, of whome came all righteous men.
 And when they that dwelt vpon thy earth, began to multiplic, and the number of the children, people and many nacions were increased, they began to be more vngodlie then the first.
 Now when they liued wickedly before thee, *thou didest chose thee a man from among them, whose name was *Abraham.
 Whome thou louedst, and vnto whome onely thou shewedst thy wil,
 And madest an euerlasting couenāt with him, promising him that thou woldest neuer forsake his sede.
 *And vnto him thou gauest Isahac, *vnto Isahac also thou gauest Iacob and Esau, *and didest chose Iacob, and cast of Esau, and so Iacob became a great multitude.
 And whē thou leddest his sede out of Egypt, *thy brightest theē vp to mount Sina,
 And enclinedst the heauens and bowedst downe the earth, and didest moue the grounde, and cause the depths to shake, and didest astonish the worlde.
 And thy glorie went thorowe foure gates of fyre, with earthquakes, winde and colde, that thou mightest giue the Lawe vnto the sede of Iacob, and that which the generacion of Israel shulde diligently obserue.
 Yet tokest thou not away from them the wicked heart, that thy Law might bring forth the frute in them.
 For *Adam first hauing a wicked heart, Gen. 3.6. was ouercome and vanquished, & all they that are borne of him.
 Thus remained weakenes ioyned with the lawe in the hearts of the people, with the wickednes of the roote: so that the good departed away, & the euil abode stil.
 So the times passed away, and the yeres were brought to an end, *til thou didest raise thee vp a seruant called Dauid, 1 Sam. 16. 13.
 *Whome thou commandedst to buyld a citie vnto thy Name, to call vpon thee therein with incense and sacrifice. 2 Sam. 5. 1.
 Whē this was done many yeres, the inhabitants forsoke thee,
 Following the wates of A lam and all his generacion: for they also had a wicked heart.
 Therefore thou gauest thy citie ouer into the hands of thine enemies.
 But do they that dwell at Babylon, any better, that they shulde haue the dominiō of Sion?
 For when I came thether, and sawe their wicked dedes without number (for this is the thirtieth yere that I se many trespassing) I was discouraged.
 For I sawe, how thou sufferedst them that sinne, and sparedst the wicked doers, where as thou hast destroied thine owne people, and preserued thine enemies, and thou hast not shewed it.
 I can not perceiue how this commeth to passe. Are the dedes of Babylon better then they of Sion?
 Or is there any other people that knoweth thee besides Israel? or what generacion hathe so beleued thy Testimonies, as Iacob?
 And yet their rewarde appeareth not, and their labour hathe no frute: for I haue gone here & there thorow out the heathē, and I se them flourish, and thinke not vpon thy commandements.
 Weigh thy therefore our wickednes now in the balance, and theirs also that dwell in the worlde, and no mention of thee shall be founde but in Israel.
 Or when is it that they that dwell on the earth, haue not sinned in thy sight? or what people hathe so kept thy commandements?
 Thou shalt surely finde that Israel by name hathe kept thy precepts, but not the heathen.

CHAP. IIIII.

2 The Angel reproveth Eſſiras, becauſe he ſeemed to entre into the profounde iudgements of God.

1 AND the Angel that was ſent vnto me, whoſe name was Vniel, answered,

2 And ſaid, Thine heart hath taken too much vpon it in this worlde, and thou thinkeſt to comprehend the wates of the Hiſt.

3 The ſaid I, Yea, my lord. And he answered me, and ſaid, I am ſent to ſhewe thee three waies, and to ſet forth the three ſimilitudes before thee,

4 Whereof if thou canſt declare me one, I wil ſhewe thee alſo the way, that thou deſireſt to ſee, and I wil ſhewe thee from whence the wicked heart cometh.

5 And I ſaid, Tell on, my lord. Then ſaid he vnto me, Go thy way: weigh me the weight of the fyre, or meaſure me ſome blaſt of the winde, or call me againe the daye that is paſt.

6 Then answered I, and ſaid, What man is borne, that can do that, which thou requirſt me, concerning theſe things?

7 And he ſaid vnto me, If I ſhulde aſke thee how deepe dwellings are in the middes of the ſea, or how great ſprings are in the beginning of the depth, or how great ſprings are in the ſtretching out of the heauen, or which are the borders of Paradife,

8 Per adventure thou wouldeſt ſay vnto me, I neuer went downe to the deepe, nor yet to the hell, neither did I euer clime vp to heauen.

9 But now haue I aſked thee but of fyre & winde, and of the day, whereby thou haſt paſſed, and from the which things thou canſt not be ſeparated, and yet canſt thou giue me none answer of them.

10 He ſaid moreover vnto me, Thine owne things, and ſuche as are growen vp with thee, canſt thou not knowe:

11 How ſhulde thy veſſel then be able to comprehend the wayes of the Hiſt, and now outwardly in the corrupt worlde, to vnderſtand the corruption, that is euident in my ſight?

12 Then ſaid I vnto him, It were better that we were not at all, than that we ſhulde liue in wickednes, and to ſuffer, and not to knowe wherefore.

*Iudg 9. 11.
2. ſ. 10. 25. 18.*

13 And he answered me, & ſaid, * I came to a foreſt in the plaine where the trees helde a counſel,

14 And ſaid, Come, let vs go fight againſt the ſea, that it may giue place to vs, and that we may make vs more woods.

15 Likewise the floods of the ſea toke counſel and ſaid, Come, let vs go vp and fight againſt the trees of the wood, that we may get another countrey for vs.

16 But the purpoſe of the wood was vaine: for the fyre came and conſumed it.

17 Likewise alſo the purpoſe of the floods of the ſea: for the ſand ſtode vp and ſtopped them.

18 If thou were iudge betwene theſe two, whome wouldeſt thou iuſtifie, or whome wouldeſt thou condemne?

19 I answered and ſaid, Verely it is a fooliſh purpoſe, that theſe boche haue deuſed: for the grounde is appointed for ſome wood, and the ſea hath his place to beare his floods.

20 Then answered he me, and ſaid, Thou haſt giuen a right iudgement: but why iudgeſt thou not thy ſelf alſo?

21 For like as the grounde is appointed for the wood, and the ſea for his floods, ſo * they that dwell vpon earth, can vnderſtand nothing, but that which is vpon earth: & they that are in the heauens, the things that are about the height of the heauens.

*Iſa 55. 8.
2. ſ. 3. 32.*

1. 407. 2. 1. 3.

22 Then answered I, & ſaid, I beſeeche thee, O Lord, let vnderſtanding be giuen me.

23 For I did not purpoſe to inquire of thine hid things, but of ſuche as we daerly meddle with all, namely wherefore Iſrael is made a reprobate to the heathen, and for what cauſe the people, whome thou haſt loued, is giuen ouer to wicked nations, and why the Law of our fathers is aboliſhed, and the written ceremonies are come to none effect, 24 Why we are toſſed to and fro through the worlde as the greeſhoppers, and our life is a vey feare, and we are not thought worthy to obtaine mercie.

25 But what wil he do to his Name, which is called vpon ouer vs? Of theſe things haue I aſked the queſtion.

26 Then answered he me, and ſaid, The more thou ſearcheſt, the more thou ſhalt manue: for the worlde haſteth faſt to paſſe away, 27 And can not comprehend the things, that are promiſed to the righteous in time to come: for this worlde is full of vnrigh- teouſnes and weakenes.

28 But to declare thee the things whereof thou aſkeſt, the euil is ſowen, but the deſtruction thereof is not yet come.

29 If the euil now that is ſowen, be not turned vp ſide downe, and if the place where the euil is ſowen, paſſe not away, then can not the thing come, that is ſowen with good.

30 For the corne of euil ſede hath bene ſowen in the heart of Adam from the beginning, & how muche vngodlines hath he brought vp vnto this time? & how much ſhal he bring forth vntil the harueſt come?

31 Ponder with thy ſelf, how muche frute

I I. Esdras.

of wickednes the corne of quill fede bringeth forthe,

32 And when the stalkes shalbe cut downe, which are without number, how great an haruest must be prepared.

33 Then I answered, and said, How, & when shal these things come to passe? wherefore are our yeres fewe and euill?

34 And he answered me, saying, Hastenot to be aboute y^e moste High: for thou laborest in vaine to be aboute him, though thou indeuer neuer so muche.

35 Did not the soules also of the righteous aske question of these things in their chambers, saying, How long shal I thus hope? & when cometh the frute of my baine and our wages?

36 And vpon this Ieremiel the Archangel answered, and said, When the number of y^e sedes is filled in you: for he hathe weighed the worlde in the balance.

37 The measure of the times is measured: the ages are counted by number, and they shal not be moued or shaken, til the measure thereof be fulfilled.

38 Then answered I, & said, O lord, lord, we are all euen full of sinne, 39 And for our sake paradventure the haruest of y^e righteous is not fulfilled, because of the sinne of them that dwell vpon earth.

40 So he answered me, and said, Go, & aske a woman with childe, when she hathe fulfilled her nine moneths, if her wombe may kepe the birth anie longer within her.

41 Then said I, No, lord, she cannot. And he said vnto me, In the graue the places of soules are like the wombe.

42 For as she that is with childe, hasteth to escape the necessitie of the trauail, so do these places hast to deliuer those things that are committed vnto them.

43 That which thou desirest to se, shalbe shewed thee from the beginning.

44 Then answered I, and said, If I haue founde grace in thy sight, and if it be possible, and if I be mete therefore, 45 Shewe me whether there be more to come then is past, or more things past, then are to come.

46 What is past, I knowe, but what is to come, I knowe not.

47 And he said vnto me, Stand on the right side, and I wil expounde thee this by example.

48 So I stode, and beholde, a whote burning ouen passed before me: and when the flame was gone by, I looked, & beholde, the smoke had the vpper hand.

49 After this there passed before me a waterie cloude, and sent downe muche raine with a storme: and when the stormie raine was past, the droppes came after.

50 Then said he vnto me, Consider with thy self, as the raine is more the the droppes, and as fyre exceedeth the smoke, so the porcion that is past, hathe the vpper had, & the droppes and the smoke were muche.

51 Then I praied, & said, Make I liue, thinkest thou vntil that time? or what shal come to passe in those daies?

52 He answered me, and said, Of the tokens whereof thou askest me, I can tell thee a parte: but I am not sent to shewe thee of thy life: for I do not knowe it.

CHAP. V.

In the latter times truthes shalbe hid: 6 Unrighteousnes & all wickednes shal reigne in the worlde. 23 Israel is rescued, and God deliuereth the: 35 God doeth all thing in season

1 NEuertheles concerning the tokens, beholde, the times shal come, that thei which dwell vpon earth, shalbe taken in a great nober, & the way of the trueth shalbe hid & y^e land shalbe baren fro faith,

2 And iniquitie shalbe increased more the than thou hast sene now, or hast heard in time past. Matt 24, 26

3 And it shal come to passe, that one shal set in fore, and thou shalt se the land desolate, which now reigneth.

4 Yea, if God gräte thee to liue, thou shalt se after the third trumpeter, that the sunne shal suddenly shine againe in the night, & the moone thre times a day.

5 Blood shal drop out of the wood, and the stone shal giue his voyce, and the people shalbe moued.

6 And he shal rule, of whome they hope not that dwell vpon earth, and the foules shal change place.

7 And the sea of Sodom shal cast out fish, and make a noyse in the night, which many shal not knowe, but they shal all heare the voyce thereof.

8 There shalbe a confusion in many places, and the fyre shal oft breake forthe, & the wilde beasts shal change their places, and menstruous women shal beare monstres,

9 And salt waters shalbe founde in the swete, & all friēds shal fight one against another: then shal wit hide it self, and vnderstanding departe into his secret chamber.

10 It shalbe fought of many, and yet not be founde: then shal vnrighteousnes and voluptuousnes haue y^e vpper hand vpon earth.

11 One land also shal aske another, & say, Is righteous iustice gone thowwe thee? And it shal say, No.

12 At the same time shal men hope, but not obtaine: they shal labour, but their enterprises shal not prosper.

13 To shewe thee suche tokēs I haue lesue, and if thou wilt praie againe and wepe as now, and fast seuen daies, thou shalt heare yet greater things then these.

14 ¶ Then I awakcd, and a fearefulnes went thorow

- thorow all my bodie, and my minde was feble and fainted.
- 25 But the Angel that was come to talke with me, helde me, comforted me, and set me vp vpon my feet.
- 26 And in the seconde night, Salathiel the captaine of the people came vnto me, saying, Where hast thou bene? and why is thy countenance so heaue?
- 27 Knowest thou not that Israel is committed vnto thee in the land of their captiuitie?
- 28 Vp then and eat, & forsake vs not, as the shepherd that leaueth his flocke in the hands of the cruel wolues.
- 29 Then said I vnto him, Go thy waies fro me, and come not nere me: and when he heard it, he went from me.
- 30 And I fasted seuen daies, mourning and weping, as Vriël the Angel had commanded me.
- 31 And after seuen daies the thoughts of mine heart were very grieuous vnto me againe.
- 32 And I had a desire to reason againe, and I beganne to talke with the moste High againe,
- 33 And said, O Lord, Lord: of euerie forest of the earth, and of all the trees thereof thou hast chosen thee one onely vineyarde.
- 34 And of all lands of the worlde thou hast chosen thee one pit, & of all the flours of the grounde thou hast chosen thee one lillie.
- 35 And of all the depths of the sea thou hast filled thee one riuer, and of all buylded cities thou hast sanctified Sion vnto thy self.
- 36 And of all the foules that are created, thou hast named thee one doue, and of all the cattel that are made, thou hast appointed thee one shepe.
- 37 And among all the multitude of people thou hast gotten thee one people, and vnto this people whome thou louedst, thou gauest a Law, that is proued of all.
- 38 And now, O Lord, why hast thou giuen this one people ouer vnto many? and vpon one roote thou hast set others, & hast scattered thine onelie people among many.
- 39 They treade them downe, which haue withstood thy promises, and beleue not thy testimonies.
- 40 And if thou didst somuche hate thy people, they shulde haue bene punished with thine owne hands.
- 41 ¶ Now when I had spoken these wordes, the Angel that came to me the night afore, was sent vnto me,
- 42 And said vnto me, Heare me, and I wil teache thee, & hearkē that I may instruct thee further.
- 43 And I said, Speake on, my lord. Then said he vnto me, Thou art fore vexed and troubled for Israels sake. Louest thou thé better, then he doeth that made them?
- 44 And I said, No, lord: but of very sorow haue I spokē: for my raiens paine me euerie houre, while I labour to comprehend the way of the moste High, & to seke out parte of his iudgement.
- 45 And he said vnto me, Thou canst not. And I said, Wherefore, lord, wherefore was I borne? or why was not my mothers wombe then my graue? so had I not sene the trouble of Iacob, and the grief of the stocke of Israel.
- 46 And he said vnto me, Number vnto me the things that are not yet come, or gather me the droppes, that are scatted, or make me the withered floures greene againe.
- 47 Open me the places that are closed, and bring me forth the windes, that are shut vp therein: shewe me the image of a voyce, and then wil I declare thee the thing, that thou askest and laborest to knowe.
- 48 And I said, O Lord, Lord, who can knowe these things, but he that hath not his dwelling with men?
- 49 But I that am ignorant, how can I speake of these things, whereof thou askest me?
- 50 Then said he vnto me, Like as thou canst do none of these things, that I haue spoken of, so canst thou not finde out my iudgement, nor the least benefite, that I haue promised vnto my people.
- 51 Then I said, Beholde, O Lord, the last things are present vnto thee, and what shal they do that haue bene before me, or we that be now, or they that shal come after vs?
- 52 And he said vnto me, I wil compare my iudgement vnto a ring: as there is no slacknes of the last, so is there no swiftnes of the first.
- 53 Then I answered, and said, Coldest thou not make at once those y haue bene, those that are now, & those that shal come, that thou mightest shewe thy iudgement the soner?
- 54 The answered he me, The creature, said he, can not preuent the Creator, nether can the worlde holde them at once, that shal be created therein.
- 55 And I said, As thou hast taught thy seruant, that thou, which giuest strength to all, hast giuen life at once to all the worke created by thee, and hast sustained it, so might it now also containe all men at once.
- 56 And he said vnto me, Aske the wombe of a woman, and say vnto her, Why must thou haue time before thou bringest forth: require her to bring forth the ten at once.

II. Esdras.

- 47 And I said, Surely the can not, but by distance of time.
- 48 Then said he vnto me, So haue I deuided the number of the earth by times when seede is sown vpon it.
- 49 For as a yong child begetteth not that that belongeth to the aged, so haue I ordeined the time which I haue created.
- 50 ¶ I asked againe, and said, Seing thou hast now shewed me y way, I wil procede to speake before thee: for our mother, whome thou hast tolde me is yong, draweth she nere vnto age?
- 51 He answered me, and said, Aske a woman that traueileth, and she wil tell thee.
- 52 Say vnto her, Whetefore are not they (whome thou hast now broght forth) like those that were before thee, but lesse of stature?
- 53 And she shal answer thee, Some were borne in y floure of youth, others were borne in the time of age, when the wombe failed.
- 54 Consider now thy self, how that ye are lesse of stature, then those that were before you,
- 55 And so are they that come after you, lesse then ye, as the creatures which now beginne to be olde, and haue passed ouer the strength of youth.
- 56 Then said I, Lord, I beseeche thee, if I haue founde fauour in thy sight, shewe thy seruant, by whome doest thou gouerne thy workmanship?
- CHAP. VI.
- God hath foreseene all things in his secret counsel, and is autor thereof, and hath created them for his childre.*
- 25 The felicitie of the age to come.*
- 1 And he said vnto me, In the beginning when the rounde worlde was made, and before the borders of the worlde were set, and before the windes blew one against another:
- 2 Before the noyce of thundres founded, before the bright lightenig did shine forth, before the fundacions of Paradise were laide:
- 3 Before the faire floures did appeare, before the moueable powers were stablished, before the innumerable armies of Angels were gathered:
- 4 Before the heights of the aire were lifted vp, before y measures of the heauens were named, before the chimneis in Sion were hote:
- 5 Before the present yeres were soght out, and before the afflictions of them that now sinne, were turned away, and they that haue laid vp the treasure of faith, were sealed,
- 6 Then did I purpose these things, & they were made by me alone, and by none other: by me also they shalbe ended, and by none other.
- 7 Then answered I, and said, What shalbe the diuision of times? or when shalbe the end of the first, and the beginning of it that followeth?
- 8 And he said vnto me, From Abraham vnto Isaac, when Iacob and Esau were borne of him, * Iacobs hand helde first the hele of Esau. Gen 25. 26.
- 9 For Esau is the end of this worlde, and Iacob is the beginning of it that followeth.
- 10 The hand of man is betwixt the hele and the hand. Other thing, Esdras, aske thou not.
- 11 ¶ I answered the, & said, O Lord, Lord, if I haue founde fauour in thy sight,
- 12 I beseeche thee, make an end to shewe thy seruant thy tokens, wherof thou shewest me parte the last night.
- 13 So he answered me, and said, Stand vp vpon thy fete, and heare a mightie founding voyce.
- 14 There shal come as an earthquake, but the place where thou standest, shal not be moued.
- 15 And therefore when he speaketh, be not afraid: for of the end shal be the worde, & of the fundacion of the earth shal it be vnderstand.
- 16 Therefore while one speaketh of the, it trembleth and is moued: for it knoweth, that it must be changed at the end.
- 17 And when I had heard it, I stode vp vpon my fete, and hearkened, and beholde, there was a voyce that spake, and the sounde of it was like the sounde of many waters:
- 18 And it said, Beholde, the daies come, that I wil come & inquire of them that dwell vpon the earth,
- 19 And when I beginne to inquire of them, who by their vnrighteousnes haue hurt others, and when the affliction of Sion shal be fulfilled,
- 20 And the worlde, that shal vanish away, shalbe sealed; the wil I shewe these signes: the bokes shalbe opened before the heauen, and they shal se all it together.
- 21 And the children of a yere olde shal speake with their voyces: the womē with child shal bring forth the vntimelie childre of thre or foure moneths olde, and they shal liue that are raised vp.
- 22 Then suddely shal the sower places appeare as the vnfowne, & the sui store houses shal suddenly be founde emptye.
- 23 And the trumpet shal sounde, and all they that heare it, shalbe suddenly afraid.
- 24 At that time shal friends fight with friends, as with enemies, and the earth shal feare with them: the springs of the welles shal stand stil, & in thie houres they shal not renne.
- 25 Whosoeuer remaineth from all these things things that I haue tolde thee, shal be faued & se my saluacion, & the end of your worlde.

25 And the men that are receiued, shal se it:
they that haue not tasted death from their birth, and the heart of the inhabitants shal be changed, and turned to another meaning.

27 For euil shal be put out, and disceate shal be quenched,

28 But faith shal flourish: corruption shal be ouercome, and the trueth which hathe bene so long without frute, shal come forthe.

29 ¶ And when he talked with me, beholde,
I looked a litle vpon him before whome I stode.

30 And these wordes said he vnto me, I am come to shewe thee the time of the night to come.

31 If thou wilt pray againe, and fast seuen daies more, I wil tel thee more things, & greater then these, which I haue heard in the day.

32 For thy voyce is heard before y^e Highest:
surely y^e mightie hathe sene thy righteous dealing: he hath sene also thy chastitie, which thou hast kept since thy youth.

33 Therefore hathe he sent me to shewe thee all these things, and to say vnto thee, Be of good comfort, and feare not,

34 And haste not in the vaine consideration of the first times, nor make haste to the latter times.

35 And after this I wepte againe and fasted seuen daies in like maner, that I might fulfil the thre weekes, which he had appointed me.

36 And in the eight night was mine heart vexed within me againe, and I began to speake before the moste High.

37 For my spirit was greatly set on fyre, &
my soule was in distresse,

38 And I said, o Lord, thou spakest expresly in the first creation (euen the first day) and comandedst* that the heauen and the earth shulde be made, and the worke followed thy worde.

39 And then was there the spirit, and the darknes was on euerie side with silence:
there was no mans voyce as yet created of thee.

40 Then comandedst thou a bright light to come forthe out of thy treasures, that it might giue light to thy worke.

41 Vpon the second day thou createdst the heauenlie ayre, and comandedst it, that, going betwene, it shulde make a diuision betwene the waters, that the one parte might remaine aboue, and the other beneath.

42 Vpon the third day thou comandedst, that y^e waters shulde be gathered together in the seuenth parte of y^e earth; six partes a-dest thou drye, & kept them to the intent that of these there shulde be that shulde serue thee, being sowed of God and tilled.

43 As sone as thy worde went forthe, the worke was incontinently made.

44 For immediatly great and innumerable frute did spring vp, and manie diuerse pleasures for the taste, and floures of vnchangeable colour, and odours of a moste wonderful smel & these things were created the third day.

45 * Vpon the fourth day thou createdst the light of the sunne, and of the moone, and the order of the starres, Gen 1, 4.

46 And gauest them a charge, to do* seruice euen vnto man that was for to be made. Gen 1, 16.

47 And vpon the fift day thou saidest vnto the seuenth parte* where the waters were gathered, that it shulde bring forthe bealls, as foules and fishes: and it was so. Gen 1, 20.

48 For the dome waters, and without life brought forthe liuing things at the commandement of God that the nations might praise thy wonderous workes.

49 Then didest thou prepare two liuing things: the one thou calledst Behemoth, & the other thou calledst Leviathan, 1 Or, Ench.

50 And didest separate the one from the other: for the seuenth parte, where the water was gathered, colde not holde them.

51 Vnto Behemoth thou gauest one parte, which was dryed vp the third day, that he shulde dwell in the same parte, wherein are a thousand hilles.

52 Euen vnto Leviathan thou gauest y^e seuenth parte, that is wett, and hast prepared him to deuoure what thou wilt, and when thou wilt.

53 Vpon the sixt day thou gauest comandement vnto the earth, that beside thee it shulde bring forthe bealls, catel and creeping things.

54 And besides this Adam, whome thou madest lord ouer all the workes which y^e hast created, of him come we all, and the people also, whome thou hast chosen.

55 All this haue I spokē before thee, o Lord, because thou hast created the worlde for our sakes.

56 As for the other people, which also come of Adam, thou hast declared them that they are nothing before thee, but be like vnto spittle, and hast compared their riches vnto a drop that falleth from a vessel.

57 And now, o Lord, beholde these heathen which haue bene reputed as nothing, haue begonne to be lords ouer vs, and to deu-oure vs.

58 And we thy people (whome thou hast called the first borne, the onely begotten, and thy seruent louer) are giuen into their hands.

59 If the worlde then be created for our

II. Esdras.

sakes, why haue we not the inheritaunce thereof in possession? or how long shal we suffer these things?

CHAP. VII.

1 Without tribulation none can come to felicitie. 12 God aduertiseth all in time. 21 The coming and death of Christ 32 The resurrection and last iudgement. 43 After the which all corruption shal cease. 48 All fell in Adam. 59 The true life. 62 The mercies and goodnes of God.

1 AND when I had made an end of these wordes, there was sent vnto me an Angel, which had bene sent downe to me the nights afore.

2 And he said vnto me, Vp, Esdras, and heare the wordes that I am come to tell thee.

3 And I said, Speake on, my God. Then said he vnto me, The sea is set in a wyde place, that it might be deepe and great,

4 But presuppose that the entrance thereof were narrow, and like the riuers,

5 Who colde go into the sea to loke vpon it, and to rule it? If he went not thorow the narrowe, how colde he come into the broad?

6 There is also another thing: a citie is buylded and set vpon a broad field, and is ful of all good things:

7 The entrance thereof is narrowe and in a dangerous place to fall, that there is fyre at the right hand, and a deepe water at the lefte,

8 And there is but one path betwixt them, euen betwene the fyre and the water, so that there colde but one man go thre.

9 If this citie were giuen vnto a man for an inheritance, if he neuer went thorow the peril before it, how colde he receaue his inheritance?

10 And I said, It is so, Lord. Then said he, So is the portion of Israel.

11 Surely for their sakes haue I made the worlde: and when Adam transgressed my statutes, then came this thing to passe.

12 Then were the entrances of the worlde made narrowe, full of sorowe and trauail: they are but fewe and euil, and full of perils, and very paineful.

13 For the entrances of the fore worlde were wyde and sure, and broght immortal frute.

14 If then they that are liuing, labour not to enter by these strait and brittle things, they can not attaine to those things that are hid.

15 Why then disquietest thou thy self, seeing thou art corruptible? and why art thou moued, seeing thou art mortal?

16 And why hast thou not considered in thy minde the things to come, rather than them that are present?

17 Then said I, O Lord, Lord, * seeing thou hast ordeined in thy Law, that the righteous shulde inherite these things, and that the vngodlie shulde perish, 18 Shulde the righteous suffer straitnes in hoping for large things? yet they that haue liued vngodly and suffered straitnes, shal not see the large things.

19 Then he said vnto me, There is no iudge more iuste then God, and there is none more wise then the moste High.

20 For manie perish in this life, because they despise the Law of God that is appointed.

21 For God hathe diligently admonished suche as came, so oft as they came, what they shulde do to haue life, and what they shulde obserue, to auoid punishment.

22 Neuertheles, they were not obedient vnto him, but spake against him, and imagined vaine things, 23 And deceiued them selues by their wicked dedes, & denied the power of the moste High, and regarded not his waies.

24 But they despised his Law, and refused his promises: they haue vntaithfully broken his ordinances, and haue not performed his workes.

25 And therefore, Esdras, vnto the emptie are emptie things, & to the full full things.

26 Beholde, the time shal come, that these tokens which I haue tolde thee, shal come to passe, and the brude shal appeare, and she shal come forth, and be sene that now is vnder the earth.

27 And whosoever shal escape these euils, he shal see my wonders.

28 For my sonne Iesus shal appeare with those that be with him, and they that remaine, shal reioyce within foure hundred yeres.

29 After these same yeres shal my sonne Christ dye, and all men that haue life.

30 And the worlde shalbe turned into the olde silence for seuen dayes, as in the fore iudgements, so that no man shal remaine.

31 But after seuen dayes, the worlde that is yet a slepe, shalbe raised vp: and that shal dye, that is corrupt.

32 Then the earth shal restore those, that haue slept in her, and so shal the dust those that dwell therein in silence, and the secret places shal deliuer the soules that were committed vnto them.

33 And the moste High shal appeare vpon the seate of iudgement, and miseries shal vanish away, and long suffering shal haue an end.

34 Iustice onely shal continue: the trueth shal remaine, and faith shal be strong.

35 The worke shal followe, and the rewarde shalbe shewed: the good dedes shalbe of force, and vnrightheousnes shal beare no more rule.

Then

- Gen. 12. 23.* 36 Then said I, * Abraham prayed first for end 32. 3. the Sodomites, and Moyses for the fathers that sinned in the wildestes,
- 37 And they that came after him, for Israel in the time of Achaz, and Samuel,
- 1 Sam. 24. 17.* 38 And * Dauid for the destruction, * and 1 Chron. 6. 14. Salomon for them that came into the Sanctuarie,
- 1 King. 17. 21.* 39 * And Elias for those that receiued raine,
2 Kings 12. 21 and for the dead that he might liue,
- 2 King. 19. 15.* 40 And Ezechias for the people in the time of Sennacherib, and diuise others for manie.
- 41 Euen so now, seing vice is increased, & wickednes abundeth, and the righteous haue prayed for the vngodlie, wherefo-re shal not the same effect followe also now?
- 42 Then he answered me, & said, This present life is not the end: oft times honour is retained in it: therefore haue they prayed for the weake.
- 43 But the day of iudgement shal be the end of this worlde, and the beginning of the immortalitie to come, wherein all corruption shal cease.
- 44 Intemperancie shal passe away: infidelitie shalbe cut of: righteousnes shal growe vp, and the veritie shal spring vp.
- 45 The shal no mā be able to saue him that is destroyed, nor oppresse him that hathe gotten the victorie.
- 46 I answered then, and said, This is my first and last saying, that it had bene better not to haue giuen the earth vnto Adā, or when it was giuen him, to haue kept him that he shulde not haue sinned.
- 47 For what profit is it for men in this present life to be in heaumes, and after death to feare punishment?
- Rom. 1. 17.* 48 O Adam, what hast thou done? * for in that that thou hast sinned, thou art not fallen alone, but the fall also redundeth vnto vs that come of thee.
- 49 For what profit is it vnto vs, if there be promised an immortal life, when we do the workes that bring death?
- 50 And that an euerlasting hope shulde be promised vs, seing that we bitide our sel-ues to deadlie vanitie?
- 51 And that there shulde be appointed vs dwellings of health and safetie, if we haue liued wickedly?
- 52 And that the glorie of the moste High shulde be kept to defende the which haue led a pacient life, if we haue walked in the wicked wayes?
- 53 And that an eternal Paradise shulde be shewed, whose frute remaineth incorruptible, wherein is safetie and health, if we wil not enter into it?
- 54 (For we haue bene conuerfant in vnplea-sant places)
- 55 And that the faces of them, which haue abstained, shulde shine more then starres, if our faces be blacker then darckenes?
- 56 For while we liued, we did not remeber
whē we did vnrighteously, that we shulde suffer after death.
- 57 Then answered he me, and said, This is the maner of the battel, which man, that is borne in the earth, shal fight,
- 58 That if he be ouercome, he shulde suffer as thou hast said: but if he get the victo-rie, he shulde receaue the thing that I said.
- 59 For this is the life, whereof Moyses spake vnto the people, while he liued, saying,
* Chusest thoue life that thou maist liue. Deu. 30. 19.
- 60 Neuertheles, they beleued him not, neither the Prophetes after him, nor me also which haue said vnto them,
- 61 That heaumes shulde not so be to their destruction, as they shulde come vnto the,
to whome saluatiō is perswaded.
- 62 I answered then and said, I know, Lord, that the moste High is called merciful, in that he hathe mercie vpō them, which are not yet come to that worlde,
- 63 And y he hathe pittie on those that walke
in his Law,
- 64 And that * he is pacient: for he long suffereth those y haue sinned as his creatures, Rom. 2. 4.
- 65 And that he is liberall: for he wil giue afmuche as nedeth,
- 66 And that he is of great mercie: for he ouercometh in mercie those that are present, and that are past, and them which are
to come.
- 67 For if he were not abundant in his mercies, the worlde colde not continue, nor they that haue the possession thereof.
- 68 He pardoneth also: for if he gaue not of his goodnes that they, which haue done euil, might be relieued from their wickednes, the ten thousand parte of men shulde not remaine alie.
- 69 And if he, being iudge, forgave not those that be healed with his worde, and toke away the multitude of sinnes,
- 70 There shulde peraduenture be verie fewe left in an vnnumerable multitude.

1 AND he answered me, saying, The nie, but the worlde to come for fewe.

2 I wil tel thee a similitude, o Esdras. As whē thou askest the earth, it shal say vnto thee, that it giueth muche earthlie matter to make pottes, but litle dust that golde cometh of, so is it with the worke of this worlde.

II. Esdras.

- Mat 20, 16.* 3 *There be manie created, but fewe shalbe salue.
 4 Then answered I, and said, The swalowe vp the wit, & my soule, and deuoure vnderstanding.
 5 For thou hast promised to heare, and thou wilt propheticke: for thou hast no longer space, but the life giuen thee.
 6 O Lord, if thou suffer not thy seruant, that we may intreat thee, that thou maist giue sode vnto our heart, and prepare our vnderstanding, that there may come fruite of it, whereby euerie one which is corrupt, may liue, who can set him self for man.
 7 For thou art alone, and we all are one workemanship of thine hands, as thou hast said.
 8 For when the bodie is facioned now in the wombe, & thou hast giue it members, thy creature is preserved by fyre & water, and the worke, created by thee, doeth suffer nine moneths the creature, which is facioned in it.
 9 But the thing that containeth, and that which is contained, shal bothe be preserved, and when time is come, the wombe, being preserved, deliueith y^e things that growe in it.
 10 For thou hast commaded the members, eue the breasts, to giue milke vnto y^e frute appointed to the breasts, 11 That the thing, which is created, may be nourished for a time, til thou disposest it to thy mercie.
 12 Thou bringest it vp with thy righteousness, nurturest it in thy Law, & reformest it with thy iudgement.
 13 Thou slayest it as thy creature, & giuest it life as thy worke.
 14 Seing then that thou destroyest him, which with so great labours is facioned, it is an easie thing to appoint by thy comma demēt, that the thing also which is made, might be preserved.
 15 Now therefore, O Lord, I wil speake (as touching men in general thou shalt rather prouide) but concerning thy people, for whose sake I am sorie, 16 And for thine inheritāce for whose cause I mourne: for Israel, for whome I am woful, and for Iacob, for whose sake I am grieued.
 17 For them wil I pray before thee, as wel for my self, as for them: for I see our fautes that dwelt in the land.
 18 ¶ But I haue heard the sudden comming of the iudge, which is to come.
 19 Therefore heare my voyce, and vnderstand my wordes, which I wil speake before thee. The beginning of y^e wordes of Esdras, before he was taken vp.
 20 O Lord, that liueth for euer, which beholdest from aboue that which is aboue, and in the ayre,
 21 Whose throne is ineffimable, & his glorie incomprehensible, before whome the hoste of the Angels stand with trembling,
 22 Whose keeping is turned in winde and fyre, whose worde is true, and sayings sted fast, whose commandement is strong, and gouernement terrible,
 23 Whose loke diueth vp the depths, and wrath maketh y^e mountaines to melt away as the thing beareth witness.
 24 Heare the prayer of thy seruant, and receiue into thine eares the petition of thy creature.
 25 For while I liue, I wil speake, and so long as I haue vnderstanding, I wil answer.
 26 Loke not vpon the sinnes of thy people, rather then thy faithful seruants.
 27 Haue not respect vnto the wicked dedes of men, rather then to them that haue thy testimonies in afflictions.
 28 Thinke not vpon those that haue walked fainedly before thee, but remember them that reuerence thy wil.
 29 Let it not be thy wil to destroye them, which haue liued like beasts, but loke vpon them that haue clearly taught thy Law.
 30 Take not displeasur with them, which appeare worse then beasts, but loue them, that alway put their trust in thy righteousness and glorie.
 31 For we and our fathers haue all the same sickness: but because of vs that are sinners, thou shalt be called merciful.
 32 If therefore thou wilt haue mercie vpon vs, thou shalt be called merciful towards vs which haue no workes of righteousness.
 33 For the righteous, which haue laid vp manie good workes, let them receiue the rewarde of their owne dedes.
 34 But what is man, that thou shuldest take displeasur at him? or what is this mortal generation, that thou shuldest be so grieued towards it?
 35 *For verely there is no man among them that be borne, but he hath done wickedly, nor any that doeth confesse thee, which hath not done amisse. 1. King 2, 15. 2 chro 6, 26.
 36 For in this, O Lord, thy righteousness and thy goodnes shalbe praised, if thou be merciful vnto them, which haue not the substance of good workes.
 37 ¶ Then answered he me, and said, Some things hast thou spoken aright, and according vnto thy wordes it shalbe.
 38 For I wil not verely consider the workes of them, before the death, before the iudgment, before destruction:
 39 But * I wil reioyce in the wayes of the righteous, and I wil remember the pilgrimage, the saluation and the rewarde that they shal haue. Gen 4.

- 40 Like as I haue spoken now, so shal it come to passe.
- 41 For as the housbād man soweth muche sēde vpon the grounde, & planteth many trees, & yet alway the thing that is sowed, cometh not vp in time, neither yet doeth all that is plāted, take roote: so neither shal thei all that are brought into the world, be sauēd.
- 42 I answered then & said, If I haue founde grace, let me speake.
- 43 Like as the housbandmans sēde perisheth, if it come not vp, and receiue not raine in due season, or if it be destroyed with to muche raine,
- 44 So perisheth man, which is created with thine hands, & thou art called his patern, because he is created to thine image, for whose sake thou hast made all things, and lickened him vnto the housbandmans sēde.
- 45 Be not wroth with vs, o Lord, but spare thy people & haue mercie vpon thine inheritance: for thou wilt be merciful vnto thy creature.
- 46 Then answered he me, and said, The things present are for the present, and the things to come for suche as be to come.
- 47 For thou art farre of that thou shuldest loue my creature about me: but I haue oft times drawn nere vnto thee and vnto it, but neuer to the vnrighteous.
- 48 In this also thou art maruelous before the Highest,
- 49 In that thou hast humbled thy self, as it becometh thee, and hast not iudged thy self worthy to boast thy self greatly among the righteous.
- 50 For many miseries & calamities remaine for them that shal liue in the latter time, because thei shal walke in great pride.
- 51 But learne thou for thy self, and seeke out the glorie for suche as be like thee.
- 52 For vnto you is paradise opened: the tre of life is planted: the time to come is prepared, plenteousnes made ready: the citie is buylded, and rest is prepared, perfitte goodnes and absolute wisdom.
- 53 The roote of euil is sealed vp from you: the weakenes and moth is destroyed from you, and into hell fleeth corruption to be forgotten.
- 54 Sorowes are vanished away, and in the end is shewed y treasure of immortalitie.
- 55 Therefore aske thou no more questions concerning the multitude of them that perish.
- 56 For when thei had libertie, thei despised the most High: they contemned his Law & forsoke his wayes.
- 57 Moreover, they haue troden downe his righteous,
- 58 *Saying in their heart, that there was no God, though they knewe that they shulde dye.
- 59 For as the thing that I haue spoken of, is made readie for you: so is thirft and peine prepared for them: for God wolde not that man shulde perish:
- 60 But they, after that they were created, haue defiled the Name of him that made them, & are vnthankful vnto him, which prepared life for them.
- 61 Therefore my iudgement is now at hād.
- 62 These things haue I not shewed vnto all men, but vnto thee, and to a fewe like thee: then I answered, and said,
- 63 Beholde now, o Lord: thou hast shewed me the many wonders, which thou art determined to do in y last time, but in what time, thou hast not shewed me.

CHAP. IX.

5 All things in this world haue a beginning and an end. 10 Torments for the wicked after this life. 15 The number of the wicked is more then of the good. 25 The lewes ingratitude: 36 Therefore they perish. 38 The vision of a woman lamenting.

1 HE answered me then, & said, Measure here the time with it self, & when thou seeest that one parte of the tokens come to passe, which I haue tolde thee before,

2 Then shalt thou vnderstand, that it is the time wherein the most High wil begin to visite the world which he made.

3 Therefore whē there shalbe sene an earthquake in the world, and an uproare of the people,

4 Thē shalt thou vnderstand that the most High spake of those things, frō the dates that were before thee, euen from the beginning.

5 For as all that is made in the world, haue the beginning and an end, and the end is manifest,

6 So the times also of the most High haue plaine beginnings in wonders and signes, and end in effect and miracles.

7 And euerie one that shal escape safe, & shalbe deliuered by his workes, and by the faith wherein ye haue beleued,

8 Shalbe preferued from the said perils and shal see my saluacion in my land, and within my borders: for I haue kept me holy frō the world.

9 Then shal they haue pitie of them selues, which now haue abused my wayes: & thei that haue cast them out dispitefully, shal dwell in peines.

10 For suche as in their life haue receiued benefites, and haue not knowen me,

11 But haue abhorred my Law, while they were yet in libertie. and when they had yet leasure of amendment, and wolde not vnderstand but despised it, 12 They must be taught it after death by peine.

I I. Esdras.

- 13 And therefore be thou no more careful, to know how the vngodlie shalbe punished, but inquire how the righteous shalbe saued, and whose the worlde is, and for whome it is, and when.
- 14 Then answered I, and said,
- 15 I haue afore said that which I say now & wil speake it hereafter, that there be many mo of them which perish, then of thē that shalbe saued,
- 16 As the flood is greater then a drop.
- 17 And he answered me, saying, As the field is, so is also the sede: as the floures be, so are the colours also: suche as the workemā is, suche is the worke: and as the housbādman is, so is his housbādrie: for it was the time of the worlde.
- 18 Surely whē I prepared the worlde, which was not yet made for thē to dwell in that now liue, no man spake against me.
- 19 For then euerie one obeyed, but now the maners of them that are created in this worlde, that is made, are corrupted by a perpetual sede, & by a Law, whreout they can not rid them selues.
- 20 So I considered the worlde, & beholde, there was peril, because of the deuises, that were sprung vp into it.
- 21 Yet when I sawe it, I spared it greatly, and haue kept me one grape of the cluster, and a plant out of a great people.
- 22 Let therefore y multitude perish, which are borne in vaine: and let my grape be kept, and my plant, which I haue dressed with great labour.
- 23 ¶ Neuertheles, if thou wilt cease seuen daies mo(but thou shalt not fast in them,
- 24 But shalt go into a faire field, where no house is buylded, & shalt eat onely of the floures of the field, and eat no flesh, nor drinke wine, but the floures onely,
- 25 And pray vnto y moste High continually) then wil I come, and talke with thee.
- 26 So I went my waye, as he had commanded me, into the field, which is called Ardath, & there I sate among the fiours, & did eat of the herbes of the field, and the meat of the same satisfied me.
- 27 And after seuen dayes, as I sate vpo the grasse, and mine heart was vexed within me, as afore,
- 28 I opened my mouth, and began to talke before the moste High, and to say,
- 29 O Lord, when thou woldest shewe thy self vnto vs, * thou declaredst thy self vnto our fathers in the wildernes, in a place where no man dwelleth, in a baren place, when they came out of Egypt,
- 30 And expressly spakest vnto thē, saying, Hear me, o Israel, and marke my wordes, thou sede of Iacob.
- 31 For beholde, I sawe my Law in you, that it may bring forthe frute in you, and that ye may be honored by it for euer.
- 32 But our fathers, which receued the Law, kept it not, nether obserued thine ordinances, nether did the frute of the Law appeare, nether colde it, for it was thine.
- 33 *For they that receued it, perished because they kept not the thing y was sown in them. Exod. 32, 28.
- 34 And lo, it is a custome when the grounde receueth sede, or the sea a ship, or a vessel meat and drinke, if that perish wherein a thing is sowe, or wherein any thing is put,
- 35 Likewise the thing that is sown, or is put therein, and the things that are receued, must perish: so the things that are receued, do not remaine with vs: but in vs it cometh not so to passe.
- 36 For we that haue receued the Law, perish in sinne, and our heart also which receued it.
- 37 But the Law perisheth not, but remaineth in his force.
- 38 ¶ And when I spake these things in mine heart, I looked about me, & vpon the right side * I sawe a woman, which mourned sore, and lamented with a loude voyce, and was grieued in heart, and rent her clothes, and she had ashes vpon her head.
- 39 Then I left my thoughts, wherein I was occupied, and turned me vnto her,
- 40 And said vnto her, wherefore wepest thou? why art thou so sory in minde?
- 41 And she said vnto me, Syr, let me alone, that I may bewaile my self, and increase sorowe: for I am sore vexed in my minde, and broght verse lowe.
- 42 Then I said vnto her, What aileth thee? tel me.
- 43 And she said vnto me, I thy seruant haue bene baren, & haue had no childe, hauing an housband thirtie yeres.
- 44 And euery houre, & euery day these thirtie yeres I pray to the moste High day & night.
- 45 And after thirtie yeres God heard me thine handmaid, & looked vpo my miserie, considered my trouble, & gaue me a sonne, & I was glad of him: so was mine housbād also, and all they of my countrey, and we gaue great honour vnto the Almightye.
- 46 And I nourished him with great travail.
- 47 So when he grew vp, and came to take a wife, I made a feast.

- 2 Then we all ouerthrew the lights, & all my neighbours rose vp to comfort me: so I rested vntil the seconde day at night.
- 3 And when they had all left of to comfort me, that I shulde be quiet, thē I rose vp by night,

- 4 And am not purposed to returne into the citie, but to remaine here, and nether to eat nor drinke, but continually to mourne & fast, vntil I dye.
- 5 Then left I my purpose wherein I was, and spake to her angerly, and said,
- 6 Thou foolish woman aboute all other, seeft thou not our heauines, and what cometh vnto vs?
- 7 For Sion our mother is all woful and is fore afflicted, and mourneth extremely.
- 8 Seeing we be all now in heauines, and make our mone (for we be all sorowful) art thou sorie for one sonne?
- 9 Demande the earth, and she shal tell thee that it is she which ought to mourne for the fall of so manie that growe vpon her.
- 10 For fro the beginning all men are borne of her, and other shal come, and beholde, they walke almoste all into destruction, & the multitude of them shalbe destroyed.
- 11 Who shulde then rather mourne, she that hathe lost so great a multitude, or thou which art sorie but for one?
- 12 But if thou woldest say vnto me, My mourning is not like the mourning of the earth (for I haue lost the frute of my wōbe, which I broght for the with heauines, & bare with sorowes,
- 13 But the earth is according to the maner of the earth, and the present multitude returneth into her as it came)
- 14 Then say I vnto thee, As thou hast borne with trauail, so the earth also from the beginning giueth her frute vnto man, euen to him that labored her.
- 15 Now therefore withholdeth thy sorow in thy self, and beare constantly that which cometh vnto thee.
- 16 For if thou allowest Gods purpose, and receuest his counsel in time, thou shalt be commended therein.
- 17 Go thy way then into the citie to thine housband.
- 18 ¶ Then she said vnto me, I wil not, I wil not go into the citie, but here wil I dye.
- 19 So I continued to speake more with her, and said,
- 20 Do not so, but be couñseled: for how manie fallas hathe Sion? Be of good comfort because of the sorowe of Ierusalem.
- 21 For thou seeft y^e our Sanctuarie is layed waste: our altar is broken downe: our Tēple is destroyed.
- 22 Our psalterion fainteth, and the song ceaseth, and our mirth is vanished away, and the light of our candelticke is quenched, and the Arke of our couenant is takē away, and our holie things are defiled, and the Name that is called vpon vs, is almoste dishonored, and our children are put to shame, and our Priests are burnt, & our Leuites are caryed into captiuitie, and our virgines are defiled, and our wiues rauished, and our righteous men spoyled, & our children destroyed, and our yong men are brought in bondage, and our strong mē are become weake,
- 23 And, which is the greatest of all, Sion the seale hathe lost her worship: for she is deliuered into the hands of them that hate vs.
- 24 And therefore shake of thy great heauines, and put away the multitude of sorowes, that the Almighty may be merciful vnto thee, and that the moste High may giue thee rest and ease from thy labour.
- 25 And when I was talking with her, her face and beautie shined suddenly, and her countenance was bright, so that I was afrayed of her & mused what it might be.
- 26 And beholde, immediatly she cast out a great voyce, very fearful, so y^e the earth shoke at the noyce of the woman.
- 27 And I looked, and beholde, the woman appeared vnto me no more: but there was a citie buylded, and a place was shewed frō the grounde and fundacion. Then was I afrayed, and cryed with a loude voyce, and said,
- 28 Where is Vriell the Angel * which came Chap. 4. 2. to me at the first? for he hathe caused me to come into manie and depe considerations, and mine end is turned into corruption, and my prayer to rebuke.
- 29 And as I was speaking these wordes, beholde, he came vnto me, and looked vpon me.
- 30 And lo, I laye as one dead, and mine vnderstanding was altered, and he toke me by the right hand and comforted me, and set me vpon my feete, and said vnto me,
- 31 What aileth thee? and why is thine vnderstanding vexed? and the vnderstanding of thine heart? & wherefore art thou sorie?
- 32 And I said, Because thou hast forsaken me, and I haue done* according vnto thy Chap. 5. 20. wordes: I went into the field, and there haue I sene things, & se that I am not able to expresse.
- 33 Then said he vnto me, Stand vp manly, and I wil giue thee exhortacion.
- 34 Then said I, Speake vnto me, my lord, and forsake me not, lest I dye through rashnes.
- 35 For I haue sene that I knewe not, and heare that I do not knowe.
- 36 Or is mine vnderstanding disceiued, or doeth my minde, being haucie, erre?
- 37 Now therefore I beseeche thee that thou wilt shewe thy seruant of this wondre.
- 38 Thē he answered me, and said, Heare me, and I wil informe thee, & tel thee wherefore thou art afrayed: for the moste High hathe reuiled manie secret things vnto thee.

- 39 He hath sent thy good purpose, that thou art forie continually for thy people, and makist great lamentacion for Sion.
- 40 This therefore is the vnderstanding of the visio, which appeared vnto thee a litle while ago.
- 41 Thou sawest a womā mourning, & thou beganest to comfort her:
- 42 But now seest thou the likenes of the woman no more; but there appeared vnto thee a citie buylded.
- 43 And where as she tolde thee of the death of her sonne, this is the solution,
- 44 This woman, which thou sawest, she is Sion: and where as she tolde thee (euen the which thou seest now as a citie buylded)
- 45 And as touching that she said vnto thee, that she was baren thirtie yeres, this was concerning that, there was euen thirtie yeres wherein there was no offering offred in her.
- 46 But after thirtie yeres, Salomon buylt the citie, and offred offerings: then bare the baren a sonne.
- 47 And where as she tolde thee, that she nourished him with labour, that was the inhabiting of Ierusalem.
- 48 But where as she tolde thee that her sonne, as his chance was, dyed when she came into her chamber, that is the fall that is come to Ierusalem.
- 49 And when thou sawest her like one that mourned for her sonne, thou beganest to comfort her: of these things which haue closed these are to be opened vnto thee.
- 50 For now the moste High seeth, that thou art forie in thy mind, & because thou suffrest with all thine heart for her, he shewed thee the clerenes of her glorie, and the fatrenes of her beautie.
- 51 And therefore I bad thee remaine in the field where no house was buylt.
- 52 For I knewe that the moste High wolde shewe these things vnto thee.
- 53 Therefore I commāded thee to go into y^e field, where no fundacio nor buylding is.
- 54 For the worke of mans buylding can not stand in that place where the citie of the moste High shulde be shewed.
- 55 And therefore feare not, nether let thine heart be afrayed, but go in, and se the beautie & greatnes of the buylding as muche as thou art able to se with thine eyes.
- 56 And after this shalt thou heare, as muche as thine eares may comprehend.
- 57 For thou art blessed aboue manie, & art called with y^e moste High among the few.
- 58 But to morow at night thou shalt remaine here,
- 59 And the moste High shal shewe thee visions of high things, which the moste High wil do vnto them that dwell vpon earth, in the last dayes. So I slept the same night & another, as he had commanded me.

C H A P. XI.

The vision of an eagle coming forth of the sea, and of her feathers. 37 Of a lyon coming out of the forest.

- Then saw I a dreame, & beholde, there came vp from the sea an eagle, which had twelue feathered wings & thre heads.
- 2 And I sawe and beholde, she spred her wings ouer all the earth, & all the windes of the ayre blew on her, and gathered them flues.
- 3 And I behelde, & out of her feathers grew out other contrarie feathers, and they became litle feathers and smale.
- 4 But her heads remained stil, & the head in the middes was greater then the other heads, yet raised it with them.
- 5 Moreouer, I sawe that the eagle flew with his feathers and reigned vpon earth & ouer them that dwelt therein.
- 6 And I sawe that all things vnder heaven were subiect vnto her, and no man spake against her, no not one creature vpon earth.
- 7 I sawe also that the eagle stode vpon her clawes, & spake to her feathers, saying,
- 8 Watch not all together: slepe euerie one in his owne place, and watch by course.
- 9 But let the heads be preserued for the last.
- 10 Neuertheles, I sawe that y^e voice went not out of her heads, but from the middes of her bodie.
- 11 Then I nombred her contrarie feathers, and beholde, there were eight of them.
- 12 And I looked, and beholde vpon the right side there arose one feather, and reigned ouer all the earth.
- 13 And when it had reigned, the end of it came, and the place thereof appeared no more. So the next stode vp, and reigned: it continued a long time.
- 14 And when it had reigned, the end of it came also, and as the first, so it appeared no more.
- 15 Then there came a voyce vnto it, and said,
- 16 Heare thou that hast kept the earth so long: this I say vnto thee, before thou beginnest to appeare no more,
- 17 There shal none after thee attein vnto thy time, nether to the halfe thereof.
- 18 Then arose the third and reigned as the other afore, and it appeared no more also.
- 19 So came it to all y^e others one after another, so that euerie one reigned, and then appeared no more.
- 20 Then I looked, and beholde in processe of time y^e feathers that followed, stode vpon the right side, that they might rule also, & some of the ruled, but within a while they appeared no more.

- 21 For some of the were set vp, but ruled not.
 22 After this I looked & beholde, y^e twelue feathers appeared nomore, nor y^e two wings.
 23 And there was no more vpon the egles bodie, but two heads that rested and six wings.
 24 Then sawe I also that two wings deuided them selues from the six, and remained vnder the head, that was vpon the right side: for the foure continued in their place.
 25 So I looked, & beholde, the vnderwings thoght to set vp them selues, and to haue the rule.
 26 Then was there one set vp, but shortly it appeared no more.
 27 And the second were soner gone then the first.
 28 The I behelde, & lo, the two that remained, thoght also in them selues to reigne.
 29 And whē they so thoght, beholde, there awaked one of the heads that were at rest, which was in the middes: for that was greater then the two.
 30 And then I sawe, that the two heads were ioyned therewith.
 31 And beholde, the head was turned with them, that were with it, and did eat vp the two vnderwings that wolde haue reigned.
 32 But this head put the whole earth in feare and bare rule in it, ouer all those that dwelt vpon earth with muche labour, & it had the gouernāce of the worlde, more the all the wings that had bene.
 33 After this I looked, and beholde, the head that was in the middes, suddenly appeared no more, as did the wings.
 34 But the two heads remained, which also ruled likewise vpon earth, and ouer those that dwelt therein.
 35 And I behelde, and lo the head vpon the right side deuoured that was vpon the left side.
 36 ¶ Then I heard a voyce which said vnto me, Loke before thee, and consider y^e thing that thou seest.
 37 So I sawe, and beholde as it were a lyon that roareth, renning hastily out of the wood: and I sawe that he sent out a mans voyce vnto the egle, and spake, and said,
 38 Heare thou, I wil talke with thee, & the moste High shal say vnto thee,
 39 Art not thou that that of the foure beasts remainest, whome I made to reigne in my worlde, that by them the end of times might come,
 40 And the fourth is come, and hath overcome all the beasts that were past, & hath power ouer the worlde with great feafulnes, and ouer the whole compasse of the earth with moste wicked oppression, and that dwelleth so long time in all y^e worlde with disceite?
 41 For y^e hast not iudged the earth wth truethe.
- 42 Seing thou hast troubled the meke, thou hast hurte the peaceable, and thou hast loued lycers, and destroyed the dwellings of them that brought forth the frute, & hast cast downe the walles of such as did thee no harme, 43 Therefore is thy wrongful dealing come vp vnto the moste High, and thy pride vnto the Mightie.
 44 The moste High also hath looked vpon the proude times, & beholde, they are ended, and their abominacions are fulfilled.
 45 Therefore appeare no more, thou egle, nor thine horrible wings, nor thy wicked feathers, nor thy malicious heads, and thy wicked clawes, nor all thy vaine bodie, 46 That all the earth may be refreshed, & come againe, as one deliuered from thy violence, & that she may hope for the iudgement and mercie of him that made her
- CHAP. XII.
The declaration of the former visions.
- 1 AND when the lion spake these wordes to the egle, I sawe,
 2 And beholde, the head that had the vpper hand, appeared no more, nether did the foure wings appeare any more, that came to it, and set vp them selues to reigne, whose kingdome was smale and ful of vproares.
 3 And I sawe, and beholde, they appeared no more, and the whole bodie of the egle was burnt, so that the earth was in great feare. Then I awaked out of the trouble and trance of my minde, and fro the great feare, and said vnto my spirit,
 4 Lo, this hast thou done vnto me in that thou searchest out the waies of the moste High.
 5 Lo, yet am I wearie in my minde, and very weake in my spirit, and litle strength is there in me, for the great feare that I receiued this night.
 6 Therefore now I wil beseeche the moste High that he wil comfort me vnto the end.
 7 And I said, O Lord, Lord, if I haue soude grace before thy sight, & if I am iustified with thee before many other, and if my prayer in dede be come vp before thy face,
 8 Comfort me, and shewe me thy seruant the interpretacion and difference of this horrible sight, that thou maist perfectly comforte my soule,
 9 Seing thou hast iudged me worthie to shewe me the last times.
 10 ¶ Then he said vnto me, This is the interpretacion of this vision, 11 The egle, whome thou sawest come vp from the sea, is the kingdome which was Da. 7. 7. sene in the vision of thy brother Daniel.
 12 But it was not expounded vnto him, therefore now I declare it vnto thee.
 13 Beholde, the daies come, that there shal

II. Esdras.

- rife vp a kingdome vpon the earth, and it shalbe feared aboute all kingdomes that were before it.
- 14 In it shal twelue Kings reigne one after another,
- 15 Whereof the seconde shal beginne to reigne and shal haue more time then the twelue.
- 16 And this do the twelue wings signifie, which thou sawest.
- 17 As for the voice that thou heardest speake, and that thou sawest not go out from the heads, but from the middes of the bodie thereof, this is the interpretacion,
- 18 That after the time of that kingdome there shal arise great strife, & it shalbe in danger to fall, but it shal not then fall, but shalbe restored againe to his beginning.
- 19 Concerning the eight vnderwings, which thou sawest hang vnto her wings, this is the interpretacion,
- 20 In him shal arise eight Kings, whose time shal be but smale, and their yeres swift, and two of them shal perish.
- 21 But when the midde time cometh, there shalbe foure kept a time, whiles his time beginneth to come, that it maye be ended, but two shalbe kept vnto the end.
- 22 And where as thou sawest thre heads resting, this is the interpretacion,
- 23 In his last dayes shal y^e moste High raise vp thre kingdomes, and shal call againe manie things into the, and they shal haue the dominion of the earth,
- 24 And of those that dwell therein, with muche grief aboute all those that were before them: therefore are they called the heads of the egle.
- 25 For they shal accomplish his wickednes, and shal finish his last end.
- 26 And where as thou sawest that the great head appeared no more, it signifieth that one of them shal dye vpon his bed, and yet with paine.
- 27 For the two that remaine, the sworde shal deuoure them.
- 28 For the sworde of the one shal deuoure the other: but at the last, shal he fall by the sworde him self.
- 29 And where as y^e sawest two vnderwings, that went of towarde the head, which was on the right side, this is the interpretacion,
- 30 These are they whome y^e moste High hathe preferred for their end, whose kingdome is litle, and ful of trouble as thou sawest.
- 31 And the lyon whome thou sawest rising vp out of the wood and roaring, and speaking vnto the egle, and rebuking her for her vnrighteousnes with all the wordes that thou hast heard,
- 32 This is the winde which the moste High hathe kept for them, and for their wickednes vnto the end, & he shal reprove them,
- and cast before them their spoiles.
- 33 For he shal set them aliue in the iudgement, and shal rebuke them and correct them.
- 34 For he wil deliuer the residue of my people by affliction, which are preferred vpon my borders, and he shal make them ioyful, vntil the comming of the day of iudgement, whereof I haue spoken vnto thee from the beginning.
- 35 This is the dreame that thou sawest, and these are the interpretacions.
- 36 Thou onely hast bene mete to know this secret of the moste High.
- 37 Therefore write all these things that thou hast sene, in a booke and hide them,
- 38 And teache them the wise of the people, whose hearts thou knowest may comprehend and kepe these secrets.
- 39 But waite thou here yet seuen daies mo, that it may be shewed thee whatsoeuer it pleaseth the moste High to declare vnto thee: and with that he went his way.
- 40 And when all the people perceived, that the seuen daies were past, and I not come againe into the citie, they gathered them all together, from the least vnto the moste, and came vnto me, and spake vnto me, saying,
- 41 What haue we offended thee? or what euil haue we done against thee, that thou forsakest vs, and sittest in this place?
- 42 For of all the people thou onely art left vs as a grape of the vine, and as a candle in a darke place, & as an hau: n or shippe preferred from the tempest.
- 43 Are not the euils which are come vnto vs, sufficient?
- 44 If thou then forsake vs, how muche better had it bene for vs, that we had bene burnt also as Sion was burnt?
- 45 For we are no better then they that dyed there: and they wept with a loude voyce, Then answered I them, and said,
- 46 Be of good comfort, o Israhel, and be not heauie, thou house of Iacob.
- 47 For the moste High hathe you in remembrance, & the Almighty hathe not forgotten you in temptation.
- 48 As for me I haue not forsakē you, nether am I departed from you, but am come into this place to praye for the desolation of Sion, that I might seke mercie for the low estate of your Sanctuarie.
- 49 And now go your way home euerie mā, and after these daies wil I come vnto you.
- 50 So the people went their way into the citie, as I commanded them:
- 51 But I remained stil in the field seuen daies, as he had commanded me, and did eat onely of the floures of the field, & had my meat of the herbes in those daies.

CHAP. XIII.

The vision of a winds coming forth of the sea, which became a man: His properties & power against his enemies. 21 The declaration of this vision.

- 1 And after the seven daies I dreamed a dreame by night.
- 2 And beholde, there arose a winde fro the sea, and it moued all the waues thereof.
- 3 And I looked, & beholde, there was a mightie man with the thousands of heauen: and when he turned his countenance to loke, all the things trembled that were sene vnder him.
- 4 And when the voyce wet out of his mouth, all they burned that heard his voyce, as the earth faileth when it feeleth the fyre.
- 5 After these things I sawe, and beholde, there was gathered together a multitude of men out of nober, fro the foure windes of the heauē, to fight against the man that came out from the sea.
- 6 And I looked, and beholde, he graued himself a great mountaine, and flewe vp vpon it.
- 7 But I wolde haue sene the counrei or place whereout the hil was grauen, and I colde not.
- 8 I sawe after these things, and beholde, all they which came to fight against him, were sore afraied, and yet they durst fight.
- 9 Neuertheles, when he sawe the fiercenes of the multitude that came, he lifted not vp his hand: for he helde no sworde nor any instrument of warre,
- 10 But onely, as I sawe, he sent out of his mouth, as it had bene a blaste of fyre, and out of his lippes the winde of the flame, and out of his tongue he cast out sparkes and stoumes.
- 11 And they were all mixt together, euē this blast of fyre, the winde of the flame, and the great storme, and fell with violence vpon the multitude, which was prepared to fight, and burnt them vp all, so that of the innumerable multitude there was nothing sene, but onely dust, and smel of smoke. When I sawe this, I was afraied.
- 12 ¶ Afterwarde sawe I the same man come downe from the mountaine, and calling vnto him another peaceable multitude.
- 13 And there came many vnto him, some with ioyful countenance, & some with sad: some of the were bound, and some broght of them that were offred: and I was sicke thorow great feare, and awaked, and said,
- 14 Thou hast shewed thy seruāt these wonders from the beginning, and hast counted me worthie to receiue my praier.
- 15 Shewe me now therefore the interpretation of this dreame.
- 16 For thus I consider in mine vnderstanding, wo vnto them y shalbe left in those daies, and muche more wo vnto them that are not left behinde.

17 For they that were not left, were in heauines.

18 Now vnderstand I the things that are laid vp in the latter daies, which shal come bothe vnto them, and to those that are left behinde.

19 Therefore are they come into great perils and many necessities, as these daies declare.

20 Yet is it easier, that he that is in danger, shulde fall into these, & forese the things to come hereafter, then to passe away as a cloude out of the world.

21 ¶ Then answered he me, & said, The interpretation of the vision which I shewe thee, and I wil open to thee the thing that thou hast requered.

22 Where as thou hast spoken of them that are left behinde, this is the interpretation, 23 He that shal beare the danger in that time, he shal kepe him self. They that be fallen into danger, are suche as haue workes and faith towarde the moste Mightie.

24 Knowe therefore, that they which be left behinde, are more blessed then they that be dead.

25 These are the meanings of the vision, Where as thou sawest a man coming vp from the middes of the sea, 26 The same is he whome the moste High hathe kept a great season, who by his owne self shal deliuer his creature, & he shal order them that are left behinde.

27 ¶ And where as thou sawest, that out of his mouth there came as a blast with fyre and stoume,

28 And y he nether helde sworde nor weapon, but that by his fiercenes he destroyed the whole multitude, that came to fight against him, this is the interpretation,

29 Beholde, the daies come that the moste High wil begynne to deliuer the that are vpon the earth:

30 And he shal astonish the hearts of them that dwell vpon the earth:

31 And one shal prepare to fight against another, cite against cite, & place against place, *and nation against nation, & realme against realme. Mat. 24. 7.

32 When this commeth to passe, then shal the tokens come, that I shewed thee before, & then shal my Sonne be reueiled, whome thou saw: he go vp as a man.

33 And when all the people heare his voyce, euē the mā shal in their owne land leaue the battel that they haue one against another.

34 And an innumerable multitude shalbe gathered as one, as they that be willing to come, and to fight against him.

II. Esdras.

- 35 But he shal stand vpon the toppes of mount Sion.
- 36 And Sion shal come, and shalbe shewed to all, being prepared and buylded, as thou sawest the hil grauen forthe without any hands.
- 37 And this my Sonne shal rebuke the wicked inuentions of those nacions, which for their wicked life are fallen into the tempest,
- 38 And into torments like to flame, whereby they shalbe tormented: and without any labour wil he destroy them, euen by the Law, which is compared vnto the fyre.
- 39 And wher as thou sawest that he gathered another peaceable people vnto him,
- 40 Those are the ten tribes which were carryed away captiues out of their owne lād, 2. King 17. 34. * in the time of Oseas the King, whome Salmansar the King of the Assyrians toke captiue, and carryed them beyonde the riuer: so were they brought into another land.
- 41 But they toke this counsel to the selues, that they wolde leaue the multitude of the heathen, and go forthe into a further country, wher e neuer mankinde dwelt,
- 42 That they might ther e kepe their statutes, which they neuer kept in their owne land.
- 43 And they entred in at the narowe passages of the riuer Euphrates.
- 44 For the moſte High then shewed the signes, * and stayed the springs of the flood til they were passed ouer. Exod 14. 27. 28. 30. 31.
- 45 For thorow y countrey there was a great iourney, euen of a yere and an halfe, and the same region is called Arſareth. 107. Aenab.
- 46 Then dwelt they there vntil the latter time: and when they come forthe againe,
- 47 The moſte High shal holde still the springs of the riuer againe, that they may go thorow: the reſore sawest thou the multitude peaceable.
- 48 But ther that be left behinde of thy people, are those that be founde within my borders.
- 49 Now when he deſtroieth the multitude of the nacions that are gathered together, he shal defende the people that remaine,
- 50 And then shal he shewe great wonders vnto them.
- 51 Then said I, O Lord, Lord, shewe me this, wherefore haue I ſene the man comming vp from the middes of the ſea?
- 52 And he said vnto me, As thou canſt neither ſeke out, nor knowe these things, that are in the deepe of the ſea, so can no man vpon earth ſe my Sonne, or those that be with him, but in the time of that day.
- 53 This is the interpretation of the dream which thou sawest, and whereby thou onely art lightened.
- 54 For thou haſt forſaken thine owne Law, and applied thy diligence vnto mine, and ſoght it.
- 55 Thy life haſt thou ordered in wiſdome, & haſt called vnderſtanding thy mother.
- 56 Therefore haue I ſhewed thee y^ewardes with the moſte High: and after thie other daies I wil ſpeake other things vnto thee, and wil declare the great and wonderous things.
- 57 Then went I forthe vnto the field, glorifying and praising the moſte High for the wonders which he did in time,
- 58 Which he gouerneth, and ſuche things as come in their ſeaſons: and there I ſate thre dayes.

CHAP. XIII.

How God appeared to Moſes in the buſh 10 All things decline to age 15 The latter times worſe then the former 29 The ingratitude of Iſrael. 31 The reſurrection and iudgement

1 Vpon the thirde day I ſate vnder an voke, and beholde, there came forthe a voyce vnto me out of the buſh, & ſaid, Esdras, Esdras?

2 And I ſaid, Here am I, Lord, & ſtoode vpon my ſete.

3 Then ſaid he vnto me, * In the buſh I reueiled my ſelf, and ſpake vnto Moſes, wher my people ſerued in Egypt: Exo. 3. 6.

4 And I ſent him, and led my people out of Egypt, and brought him vpon the mount Sinai, & I helde him with me a lōg ſeaſon;

5 And I tolde him many wōders, & ſhewed him the ſecrets of the times and the end, and commanded him, ſaying,

6 Theſe wordes ſhalt thou declare, & theſe ſhalt thou hide.

7 An know I ſay vnto thee, that thou lay vp in thine heart the ſignes that I haue ſhewed, and the dreames that thou haſt ſene, & the interpretation, which thou haſt heard.

8 For thou ſhalt be taken away from all, and thou ſhalt remaine hence forthe with my counſel, & with ſuche as be like thee, vntil the times be ended.

9 For the worlde haſt loſt his youth, & the times beginne to waxe olde.

10 For the worlde is deuided into twelue partes, & ten partes of it are gone alreadie and halfe of the tenth parte.

11 And there remaineth that which is after the halfe of the tenth parte.

12 Therefore ſet thine houſe in order, and reforme thy people, and comfort ſuche of them as be in trouble, and now renounce the corruption.

13 Let go from thee mortal thoghts: caſt away from thee the burdens of men, & put of now the weake nature, 14 And ſet aſide thy moſte grieuous thoghts, and haſte thee to departe from theſe times.

- 15 For greater euils then those, which thou hast sene now, shal thei commit.
- 16 For the weaker that the worlde is by reason of age, the moie shal the euils be increased vpon them that dwell therein.
- 17 For the trueth is fled faire away, & lies are at hand: for now hasteth the vision to come, that thou hast sene.
- 18 ¶ Then answered I, and said before thee,
- 19 Beholde, o Lord, I wil go as thou hast commanded me, and reforme the people, which are present: but they that shal be borne afterwarde, who shal admonish thee?
- 20 Thus the worlde is set in darknes, and they that dwell therein, are without light.
- 21 For thy Law is burnt, therefore no man knoweth the things that are done of thee, or the workes that shalbe done.
- 22 But if I haue founde grace before thee, send the holie Gost into me, & I wil write all that hath bene done in the worlde since the beginning, which was written in thy Law, that men may finde the path, & that thei which wil liue in the latter daies, may liue.
- 23 And he answered me, saying, Go, and gather the people, and say vnto them, that thei seke thee not for fortie daies,
- 24 But prepare thee many boxe tables, and take with thee these fise, Sarea, Dabria, Selemia, Ecanus, and Afiel, which are readie to write swiftly,
- 25 And come hether, & I wil light a candle of vnderstanding in thine heart, which shal not be put out til the things be performed which thou shalt beginne to write.
- 26 And thei shalt thou declare some things openly vnto the perfite men, and some things shalt thou shewe secretly vnto the wise to morowe this houre shalt thou beginne to write.
- 27 Then went I forthe, as he commanded me, and gathered all the people together, and said,
- 28 Heare these wordes, o Israel,
- 29 *Our fathers at y beginning were strangers in Egypt, from whence they were deliuered,
- 30 And receiued the Law of life, * which they kept not, which ye also haue trasgrefsed after them.
- 31 Then was the land, euen the lad of Sion paired amog you by lot: but your fathers and ye also haue done vnrighteously, and haue not kept the wayes, which the moiste High commanded you.
- 32 And for so muche as he is a righteous Iudge, he toke from you in time the thing that he had giuen you.
- 33 And now are ye here, and your brethren among you.
- 34 Therefore if so be that ye wil subdue your owne vnderstanding, and reforme your heart, ye shalbe kept aliue, and after death shal ye obteine mercie.
- 35 For after death shal the iudgemēt come, when we shal liue againe: & then shal the names of the righteous be manifest, and the workes of the vngodlie shalbe declared.
- 36 Let no man therefore come now vnto me, nor seke me these fortie daies.
- 37 So I toke the fise men, as he commanded me, and we went into the field, and remained there.
- 38 The next daye beholde, a voyce called me, saying, Esdras, * open thy mouth, and drinke that I giue thee to drinke. Ezech 3.2
- 39 Then opened I my mouth, and beholde, he reached me a full cuppe, which was full as it were with water: but the colour of it was like fyre.
- 40 And I toke it and dranke, and when I had dronke it, mine heart had vnderstanding and wisdom grewe in my brest: for my spirit was strengthened in memorie.
- 41 And my mouth was opened, and shut no more.
- 42 The moiste High gaue vnderstanding vnto the fise men, that they wrote the hie things of the night, which they vnderstode not.
- 43 But in the night they did eat bread, but I spake by day, & helde not my tongue by night.
- 44 In fortie daies, they wrote two hundredeth and foure bokes.
- 45 And when the fortie dayes were fulfilled, the moiste High spake, saying, The first that thou hast written, publish openly, y the worthie and vnworthie may read it.
- 46 But kepe the seuentie last, that thou maiest giue them to the wise among thy people.
- 47 For in them is the veine of vnderstanding, and the fountaine of wisdom, and the riuier of knowledge: and I did so.

CHAP. XV.

The prophetic of Esdras u certeme. 1 The euils that shal come on the worlde. 9 The Lord wil aduenge the innocent blood 12 Egypt shal lament 16 Sedition. 20 And punishment vpon the Kings of the earth. 24 Cursed are they that sinne. 29 Troubles & warres vpon the whole earth 33 God is the reuenger of his elect.

- 1 Beholde, speake thou in the eares of my people the wordes of prophetic, which I wil put in thy mouth, saith the Lord:
- 2 And cause them to be written in a lettre: for they are faithful and true.
- 3 Feare not the imaginacions against thee: let not the vnfaithfulnes of the speakers trouble thee, that spake against thee.
- 4 For euery vnfaithful shal dye in his vnfaithfulnes.
- 5 Beholde, saith the Lord, I wil bring plagues vnto the world.

I I. Efdras.

- gues vpon all the worlde, the sworde, famine, death and destruction:
- 6 Because that iniquitie hath fully polluted all the earth, and their wicked workes are fulfilled.
- 7 Therefore, saith the Lord, I wil holde my tongue no more for their wickednes, (they do vngodlic) nether wil I suffer the in the things, that they do wickedly.
- 8 Beholde, *the innocent and righteous blood cryeth vnto me, and the soules of the iust cry continually.
- 9 I wil surely auenge them, saith the Lord, and receiue vnto me all y innocent blood from among them.
- 10 Beholde, my people is led as a flocke to the slaughter: I wil not suffer them now to dwell in the land of Egypt,
- 11 But I wil bring them out with a mightie hand, and a stretched out arme, & smite it with plagues as afore, & wil destroie all the land thereof.
- 12 Egypt shal mourne, and the fundacions thereof shalbe smitten with the plague and punishment, that God shal bring vpon it.
- 13 The plowemē that cill the grounde, shal mourne: for their sedes shal faile thorowe the blasting and haile, and by an horrible starre.
- 14 Wo to the worlde, & to them that dwell therein.
- 15 For the sworde and their destruction draweth nere, and one people shal stand vp to fight against another with swordes in their hands.
- 16 For there shalbe sedicion among men, & one shal inuade another: they shal not regarde their King, & the princes shal measure their doings by their power.
- 17 A man shal desire to go into a citie, and shal not be able.
- 18 Because of their pride the cities shalbe troubled, the houses shalbe afraied, & men shal feare.
- 19 A man shal haue no pitie vpon his neighbour, but shal destroie their houses with the sworde, & their goods shalbe spoyled for lacke of bread, and because of great trouble.
- 20 Beholde, saith God, I call together all the Kings of the earth to reuerence me, which are from the East, and from the South, from the East, and from Libanus, to turne vpon the, & to repay the things, that they haue done to them.
- 21 As they do yet this day vnto my chosen, so wil I do also, and recompense them in their bosome: thus saith the Lord God,
- 22 My right had shal not spare the sinners, nether shal the sworde cease from them, that shed innocent blood vpon earth.
- 23 The fyre is gone out from his wrath, and
- bathe consumed the fundacions of the earth, and the sinners like the strawe, that is kindled.
- 24 Wo to them that sinne, and kepe not my commandements, saith the Lord.
- 25 I wil not spare them: departe, o childre, from the power: defile not my Sanctuarie.
- 26 For the Lord knoweth all them that sinne against him, and therefore deliuereth he them vnto death and destruction.
- 27 For now are the plagues come vpon the worlde, and ye shal remaine in them: for God wil not deliuer you, because ye haue sinned against him.
- 28 Beholde, an horrible vision cometh from the East,
- 29 Where generacions of dragons of Arabia shal come out with manie charrets, and the multitude of them shalbe caryed as the winde vpon the earth, that all they which heare them, may feare and tremble.
- 30 Euen the Carmanians raging in wrath, shal go forthe as the bores of the forest, and shal come with great power, and stand against them in battel, and shal destroie a porcion of the land of the Assyrians.
- 31 But after this shal the dragons haue the vpper hand, and remember their nature, and shal turne about, and conspire to consume them with a great power.
- 32 Then these shalbe troubled, and kept silence by their power, and shal flee.
- 33 From the land of the Assyrians shal the enemy besiege them, and consume some of them, and in their hoste shalbe feare & dread, and strife among their Kings.
- 34 Beholde cloudes from the East, & from the North vnto the South, and they are verie horrible to loke vpon, ful of wrath and storme.
- 35 They shal smite one vpon another: and they shal smite downe a great multitude of starres vpon the earth, euen their owne starre, & the blood shalbe from the sworde vnto the bellie,
- 36 And the dongue of mā vnto the Camels litter.
- 37 And there shalbe great fearefulnes, and trembling vpon earth, and thei that see the wrath, shalbe afraied, and a trembling shal come vpon them.
- 38 And then there shal come great stormes from the South, and from the North, and parte from the West.
- 39 And from the East shal windes arise and shal open it with the cloude, which he raised vp in wrath, & y starre, raised to feare the East & West winde, shalbe destroyed.
- 40 And the great, and mightie cloudes shal be lift vp, ful of wrath, and the starre, that they may make all the earth afraied, and them

- them that dwell therein, & that they may powre out ouer euerie hie place, and lifted vp, an horrible constellation,
- 41 As fyre and hayle, and flying swordes, & many waters, that all fields may be full, & all riuers wth the abundāce of great waters.
- 42 And they shal breake downe the cities and walles, and mountaines, and hilles, and the trees of the wood, and the grasse of the medowes, and their corne.
- 43 And they shal go with a streight counse vnto Babylon, and make it afraid.
- 44 They shal come to her, and besiege her, and shal powre forthe the constellation, & all the wrath against her: then shal the dust and smoke go vp vnto the heauen, and all they that be about her, shal bewaile her.
- 45 And they that remaine vnder her, shal do seruice vnto them, y^e haue put her in feare.
- 46 ¶ And thou Asia, that art partaker of the hope of Babylon, and the glorie of her prison,
- 47 Wo vnto thee, o wretch, because thou hast made thy self like vnto her, and hast deceiued thy daughters in whoredome, y^e they might please & glorie in thy louers, which haue alway desired to comit whoredome with thee.
- 48 Thou hast followed her that is hated in all her workes, and in her inuencions: therefore saith God,
- 49 I wil send plagues vpon thee, wedowed, pouertie, and famine, & the sword, and pestilence, to waste thine houses with destruction and death.
- 50 And y^e glorie of thy power shalbe dried vp, as a floure when the heat riseth, that is sent vpon thee.
- 51 Thou shalt be sicke as a poore wife y^e is plagued and beaten of women, so that the mightie and the louers shal not be able to receiue thee.
- 52 Wolde I thus hate thee, saith y^e Lord,
- 53 If thou hadest not alway slaine my chosen, exalting the stroke of thine hands, and said ouer their death, when y^e wast dröken,
- 54 Set forthe y^e beaurie of thy countenance?
- 55 The reward of thy whoredome shalbe in thy bosome: therefore shalt thou receiue a reward.
- 56 As thou hast done vnto my chosen, saith the Lord, so wil God do vnto thee, & wil deliuer thee vnto the plague.
- 57 And thy children shal dye of hunger, & thou shalt fall by the sword, & thy cities shalbe broken downe, and all thy men shal fall by the sword in the field.
- 58 And they that be in the mountaines shal dye of hunger, and eat their owne flesh, & drinke their owne blood for wāt of bread and thirst of water.
- 59 And thou, as vnhappie, shalt come thowen the sea, and receiue plagues againe,
- 60 In the passage they shal cast downe the slaine citie, and shal roote out one parte of thy land, & consume y^e porcion of thy glorie, & shal returne to her y^e was destioied.
- 61 When thou shalt be cast downe, thou shalt be to them as stubble, and they shalbe to thee as fyre.
- 62 And they shal destroy thee, & thy cities, thy land, & thy mountaines: all thy woods and all thy fruteful trees shal they burne with fyre.
- 63 Thy childre shal they carye away captiue, and shal spoile thy substance, & marre the beaurie of thy face.

CHAP. XVI.

Against Babylon, Asia, & Egypt and Syria. 12, 18 Of the euils that shal come vpon the worlde, with admonition how to gouerne them selues in afflictions 14 To acknowledge their finnes, & to comit them selues to the Lord. 15 Whose mightie prouidence and iustice is to be reuerenced

- 1 WO to ther, Babylon & Asia: wo to thee, Egypt and Syria.
- 2 Gird your selues with sacke & heereclothe, and mourne your children, & be sorie: for your destruction is at hand.
- 3 A sword is sent vnto you, and who wil turne it backe? a fyre is sent among you, & who wil quenche it?
- 4 Plagues are sent vnto you, and who can driue them away?
- 5 May any mā driue away an hungrie lion in the wood? or quenche the fyre in stubble whē it hath once begonne to burne? may one turne againe the arrowe, that is shot of a strong archer?
- 6 The mightie Lord sendeth the plagues, and who can driue them away? the fyre is gone forthe in his wrath, and who can quench it?
- 7 He shal cast lightnings, & who shal not feare? he shal thunder, and who shal not be afraid?
- 8 The Lord shal threaten, & who shal not vterly be broken in pieces at his presence? the earth quaketh & the fundaciō thereof: the sea ariseth vp with waues fro the depe, & the waues thereof are troubled, & the fishes thereof, before the Lord and the glorie of his power.
- 9 For streng is his right hand, y^e bendeth the bowe: his arrowes y^e he shooteth, are sharpe, & shal not miss, when they beginne to be shot into the ends of the worlde.
- 10 Beholde, the plagues are sent, & shal not turne againe, til they come vpon earth.
- 11 The fyre is kindled, & shal not be put out, til it consume the fundacions of the earth.
- 12 As an arrow w^{ch} is shot of a mightie archer, returneth not backward, so y^e plagues that shalbe set vpon earth, shal not turne againe.
- 13 Wo is me, wo is me: who wil deliuer me in those daies?
- 14 The beginning of sorowes and great

II. Esdras.

- mourning: the beginning of famine, and great death: the beginning of warres, and the powers shal feare: the beginning of euils, and all shal tremble. What shal I do in these things, when the plagues come?
- 15 Beholde, famine and plague, and trouble, and anguish are sent as scourges for amendment.
- 16 But for all these things they wil not turne fro their wickednes, nor be alway mindful of the scourges.
- 17 Beholde, vitayles shalbe so good cheape vpon earth, that they shal thinke them selues to be in good case: but then shal the euils bud forthe vpon earth, euen the sworde, the famine and great confusion.
- 18 For many of them that dwell vpon earth, shal perish with famine, and the other that escape y^e famine, shal the sworde destroy.
- 19 And the dead shalbe cast out as dongue, and there shalbe no man to comforte the: for the earth shalbe wasted, and the cities shalbe cast downe.
- 20 There shalbe no mā left to till the earth, and to sowe it: the trees shal giue frute, but who shal gather them?
- 21 The grapes shalbe ripe, but who shal treade them? for all places shalbe desolate, so that one mā shal desire to se another, or to heare his voyce.
- 22 For of one citie there shalbe ten left, and two of the field, which shal hide them selues in the thicke woods, and in the cleftes of rocks.
- 23 As when there remaine thre or foure oliues in the place where oliues growe, or among other trees,
- 24 Or as whē a vineyarde is gathered, there are left some grapes of them that diligently soght thorowe the vineyarde:
- 25 So in those daies there shalbe thre or foure left by them that searche their houses wth the sworde.
- 26 And the carth shalbe left waste, and the fields thereof shal waxe olde, & her waies and all her paths shal growe full of thornes, because no man shal traueil there-through.
- 27 The virgines shal mourne, hauing no bridegromes: the women shal make lamentacion, hauing no housbands: their daughters shal mourne hauing no helpers.
- 28 In the warres shal their bridegromes be destroyed, and their housbands shal perish with famine.
- 29 But, ye seruants of the Lord, heare these things, and marke them.
- 30 Beholde the worde of the Lord, receaue it: beleue not the gods of whome y^e Lord speaketh: beholde the plagues drawe nere, and are not slacke.
- 31 As a traouiling woma which in the ninthe moneth bringeth forthe her sonne, when the houre of birth is come, two or thre houres afore the peines come vpon her bodie, and when the childe cometh to the birth, they tarie not a whit,
- 32 So shal not the plagues be slacke to come vpon the earth, & the worlde shal mourne, & sorowes shal come vpon it on euerie side.
- 33 O my people, heare my worde: make you ready to the battel, and in the troubles be euen as strangers vpon earth.
- 34 He that selleth, let him be as he y^e fleeth his way: & he that byeth, as one y^e wil lose.
- 35 Who so occupieth marchādise, as he that winneth not: and he that buyldeth, as he that shal not dwell therein:
- 36 He y^e soweth, as one that shal not reape: he that cutteth the vine, as he that shal not gather the grapes:
- 37 They that mary, as they that shal get no children: and they that mary not, so as the widdowes.
- 38 Therefore they that labour, labour in vaine.
- 39 For strangers shal reape their frutes, and spoile their goods, and ouerthrowe their houfes, and take their children captiue: for in captiuitie & famine shal they get their children.
- 40 And they that occupie their marchādise with couetousnes, the more they decke their cities, their houfes, their possessions, and their owne persones,
- 41 So muche more wil I be angrie against them for their sinnes, saith the Lord.
- 42 As a whore enuieth an honest and vertuous woman,
- 43 So shal righteousnes hate iniquitie, whē she decketh her self, & shal accuse her openly, when he shal come that shal bridle the autor of all sinne vpon earth.
- 44 And therefore be ye not like thereunto, nor to the workes thereof: for or cuer it be long, iniquitie shalbe taken away out of the earth, and righteousnes shal reigne among you.
- 45 Let not the sinner say, that he hath not sinned: for coles of fyre shal burne vpon his head, which saith, I haue not sinned before the Lord God and his glorie.
- 46 Beholde, the Lord^e knoweth all the workes of men, their imaginaciōs, their thoughtes and their hearts. Luk. 16. 27.
- 47 *For assone as he said, Let the earth be made, it was made: let the heauen be made, and it was created. Gen. 1. 2.
- 48 By his worde were the starres established, and he^e knoweth the number of them. Psal. 147. 4.
- 49 He searcheth the depth, and the treasures thereof: he hath measured the sea, and what it containeth.
- 50 He hath shut the sea in the middes of the waters, and with his worde hath he hanged

- hanged the earth vpon the waters.
- 51 He spread:th out the heauē like a vawte: vpon the waters hathe he founde it.
- 52 In the desert hathe he made springs of water, and poles vpon the toppe of the mountaines, to powre out floods from the hie rockes to water the earth.
- 53 He made man, and put his heart in the middes of the bodie, and gaue him breth, life and vnderstanding.
- 54 And the Spirit of the almightie God, which made all things, & hathe searched all the hid things in the secrets of y^e earth,
- 55 He knoweth your inuencions, and what ye imagine in your heart when ye sinne & wolde hide your finnes.
- 56 Therefore hathe the Lord searched and sought out all your workes, and wil put you all to shame.
- 57 And when your finnes are broght forthe before man, ye shalbe confounded, and your owne finnes shal stand as your accusers in that day.
- 58 What wil ye do, or how wil ye hide your finnes before God and his Angels?
- 59 Beholde, God him selfe is the iudge: feare him: cease from your finnes, and forget your iniquities, and medle no more from hence forthe with them: so shal God lead you forthe, and deliuer you from all trouble.
- 60 For beholde, the heate of a great multitude is kindled against you, and they shal take away certeine of you, and shal flaye you for meat to the idoles.
- 61 And they that consent vnto them, shalbe had in derision and in reproche, and troden vnder foote.
- 62 For in euerie place and cities that are nere, there shalbe great insurrection against those that feare the Lord.
- 63 They shalbe like mad men: they shal spare none: they shal spoyle, & waste suche as yet feare the Lord.
- 64 For they then shal wASTE and spoile their goods, and cast them out of their houses.
- 65 The shal the tryal of my chosen appeare, as the golde is tryed by the fyre.
- 66 Heare, O ye my beloued, saith the Lord: beholde, the daies of trouble are at hand, but I wil deliuer you from them: be not ye afraid: doute not, for God is your captaine.
- 67 Who so kepeth my commādements and precepts, saith y^e Lord God, let not your finnes weigh you downe, and let not your iniquities lift them selues vp.
- 68 Wo vnto the that are bounde with their finnes, and couered with their iniquities, as a field is hedged in with bushes, and the path thereof couered with thornes, whereby no man may trauail: it is shut vp, and is appointed to be deuoured with fyre.
